

Gilmore posted the video on Twitter, where it attracted the attention of the press. After discussing what he had witnessed that day with a number of reporters, Mr. Gilmore soon became the target of right-wing conspiracy theories. Supporters of the alt-right and the “Unite the Right rally,” including the defendants, created a new identity for Mr. Gilmore—the organizer and orchestrator of Fields’ attack and a traitor to the United States. Defendants’ lies about Mr. Gilmore quickly mobilized their army of followers to launch a campaign of harassment and threats against Mr. Gilmore that continue to this day.

Supporters of the “Unite the Right” rally, including Defendants, faced a crisis of legitimacy when a fellow supporter murdered Heather Heyer in cold blood. Defendants needed a scapegoat to create distance between the ideology they promote and Heyer’s murder. Given Mr. Gilmore’s connections to Democratic politicians and the State Department, Defendants thought they had their scapegoat in Mr. Gilmore, and attacked his presentation of the sequence of events based on his political leanings. But Defendants did more than just twist the publicly available information about Brennan; Defendants created a new identity for Mr. Gilmore out of whole cloth. All Mr. Gilmore had done was share the truth about the tragic and traumatic act he regrettably witnessed. For a man who has devoted his life to serving his local community, the Commonwealth, the United States, and the global community, Defendants’ absurdly false portrayal of him, and the harassment that followed, was devastating.

Defendants thrive by inciting devastating real-world consequences with the lies they publish as “news.” From “Pizzagate” to the Sandy Hook and Las Vegas shootings, Defendants have subjected innocent people to relentless threats of violence and death, bullying, and online harassment. Defendants’ use of Mr. Gilmore as a tool for their agenda had immediate, tangible consequences for Brennan and his family. A list of Brennan and his parents’ known addresses was posted online, prompting local law enforcement to patrol his parents' home. Brennan suffered from an overwhelming volume of hate mail and death threats, hacking attempts, and even in-person harassment on the streets of Charlottesville.

To this day, Brennan suffers the effects of this character assassination: his career as a diplomat has been compromised, he has lost potential partners and clients in his most recent business venture, and his social relationships have been irreversibly damaged.

Fact-based journalism is essential to our democracy, because it provides citizens with objective, reality-based information on issues of public concern. Defendants are not fact-based journalists. Defendants spread lies to construct false narratives that terrify a gullible audience, all in a desperate attempt to generate revenue and momentum for a hateful agenda. The First Amendment necessarily creates space for democratic debate, but it does not and cannot protect the spread of deliberate lies driven by hate and designed to incite violence against private citizens. In this era of ubiquitous smartphones and social media saturation, ordinary citizens like Mr. Gilmore increasingly find themselves in situations where they capture breaking news and are compelled out of civic duty to share it. The consequences for fulfilling this civic duty cannot include becoming the target of premeditated character assassination, based on lies and carried out by professional conspiracy theorists instrumentalizing their throngs of followers.

Brennan Gilmore told the truth about what he saw in Charlottesville, and he refuses to be intimidated and silenced by Defendants' dangerous and defamatory lies.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This action arises under Virginia law.
2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to Article III of the United States Constitution and 28 U.S.C. § 1332. The amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, exclusive of interests and costs, and there is diversity of citizenship.

3. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants under Virginia's long-arm statute, Va. Code § 80.1-328.1(A)(4), as well as the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.
4. Defendants injured Plaintiff Gilmore in the Commonwealth of Virginia by their conduct outside the Commonwealth.
5. Plaintiff Gilmore suffered threats and harassment in the Commonwealth of Virginia so severe that he sought the protection of local police.
6. Defendants' defamatory statements were directed at and received by individuals and businesses in Virginia, and as a result, Plaintiff Gilmore has experienced irreversible personal and professional damage in Virginia, including the loss of business opportunities in Virginia, irreparable damage to his career as a Foreign Service Officer, and the loss of friendships with individuals in Virginia.
7. Upon information and belief, Defendants regularly do and/or solicit business in the Commonwealth, engage in other persistent courses of conduct, or derive substantial revenue from goods used or consumed or services rendered in the Commonwealth.
8. Defendants solicit donations on their websites or blogs, advertise their own products on their websites, blogs, or in their articles or videos, and/or derive revenue from advertisements that are placed on their websites and blogs, or within their articles or videos. The traffic to these websites and purchases or donations made on these websites, including by individuals in the Commonwealth of Virginia, leads directly or indirectly to the revenue received by the Defendants.

9. Exercising jurisdiction over the defendants would not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice because the defendants deliberately targeted Mr. Gilmore, a Virginia resident, by making false and defamatory statements about his presence at and observation of an event that took place in Virginia, which was of particular importance to local Virginians.
10. Defendants therefore should have foreseen that they would be forced to answer for their tortious conduct, and the resulting injuries to Mr. Gilmore, in a Virginia court.
11. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in Charlottesville, Virginia and Lexington, Virginia.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. The "Unite the Right" Rally

22. On August 12, 2017, hundreds of white supremacists and neo-Nazis gathered in Charlottesville, Virginia for what they labeled the "Unite the Right" rally. The rally was held in Charlottesville in response to decisions by the Charlottesville City Council to remove a statute of Confederate General Robert E. Lee from a small city park and change that park's name from "Lee Park" to "Emancipation Park."
23. These white supremacists and neo-Nazis organized the rally to further their ideologies of hatred and to intimidate the residents of Charlottesville. Many marched with swastikas, chanting the Nazi call, "blood and soil," in reference to the notion that ethnicity and blood descent is determinative of entitlement to the land. Some of the rally's participants carried firearms, wore body armor, and deliberately positioned themselves to create violent clashes with counter-protesters.²¹

24. The counter-protesters came from many backgrounds, united in opposition to white supremacy. Many were ordinary residents of Charlottesville and neighboring communities. Mr. Gilmore was among the peaceful counter-protesters on August 12.
25. On the morning of August 12, rally participants and counter-protesters met at the site of the anticipated rally. Pockets of each side engaged in physical altercations; Mr. Gilmore and the vast majority of counter-protesters remained peaceful. By 11:40 a.m., twenty minutes before the “Unite the Right” rally was to begin, the state police declared the gathering an unlawful assembly and ordered the crowd to disperse.²²

B. James Alex Fields Jr. 's Attack

26. At or around 1:42 p.m., following the aborted rally, James Alex Fields Jr. drove his Dodge Challenger into a crowd of peaceful counter-protesters, killing one, Heather Heyer, and injuring approximately thirty-six others. Fields is a neo-Nazi sympathizer and has been charged with multiple felonies related to his deliberate act of terror.²³ Attorney General Jefferson Sessions stated that this attack by a white supremacist was an act of domestic terrorism.

27. Mr. Gilmore noticed Fields' Dodge Challenger driving toward the crowd after he had already begun recording a gathering of counter-protesters marching up Fourth Street in Charlottesville. His immediate reaction was to continue to record the event on his smartphone. In the video, Mr. Gilmore happened to catch the Challenger ramming into the crowd, and then reversing in flight from the scene.
28. Mr. Gilmore was conflicted about sharing the recording of the attack publically. He did not want the attention that sharing the video on social media might bring, and he was uncomfortable about sharing a recording of what he assumed at the time was a video capturing multiple deaths. He felt it necessary to share the video on his Twitter account after hearing from family and friends that media outlets were suggesting the incident was something other than a deliberate attack. Mr. Gilmore realized his recording unequivocally showed that the attack was a deliberate attempt to injure and kill peaceful counter-protesters—not an accident or act of self-defense. Mr. Gilmore also feared that an already violent day in Charlottesville could get worse, and he felt it was his duty to help convince the public to stay off the streets until safety was reestablished.
29. Out of concern for his friends and neighbors, Mr. Gilmore decided to share the video via a tweet, a short statement posted along with the video to his Twitter account. Many of his followers are also from the Charlottesville area.

30. Not long after he shared the video on his Twitter account, Mr. Gilmore began to receive media requests from national, local, and international outlets. He was first contacted by Brian Rosenthal of the New York Times on August 12, 2017 via Twitter. More requests for interviews followed.
31. Mr. Gilmore spoke with multiple television news networks and other news media on August 12 and 13, 2017. Each time he was asked, he relayed his account of what he had witnessed first-hand, hoping that by making himself available in this way he could convey the seriousness and certainty of what he had seen and condemn the hate-filled display and violence at the “Unite the Right” rally.

C. Conspiracy Theories About the Attack

32. Within twenty-four hours of uploading his video onto Twitter, the Defendants’ first blog posts about Mr. Gilmore appeared online, accusing him of being a CIA or “deep state” operative who helped orchestrate Fields' attack as a "false flag." Defendants continued to direct baseless allegations against him in the days and weeks that followed.

33. In the early hours of August 13, 2017, Defendant Scott Creighton published an article entitled "Charlottesville Attack, Brennan Gilmore and... the STOP KONY 2012 Pysop? What?" on his website, AmericanEveryman,²⁴ and shared a link to the article with his 1,139 followers on Twitter.²⁵ See Exhibit A. AmericanEveryman is a self-published blog that receives hundreds of unique visitors each month. Defendant Creighton subsequently republished the article on at least two other websites.²⁶ See Exhibits B-C.
34. In this article, Defendant Creighton notes Mr. Gilmore's experience as a Foreign Service Officer in the Central African Republic and his work as chief of staff to Tom Perriello. On the basis of these facts, along with Mr. Gilmore's statement of belief that the attack was an act of terrorism, Defendant Creighton concludes that Mr. Gilmore cannot have been a mere bystander who happened to record the attack. Instead, Mr. Creighton concludes that Mr. Gilmore must have been a "disgruntled former [State Department] employee" looking to undermine the Trump administration:

[I]s it possible this man with links to Special Ops and CIA and various other black ops kinds of actors just HAPPENED to be there at that particular moment in history? Yeah, I guess that's possible, if you're into coincidence theories I suppose. But I'm not into such things. Clearly the State Department has a lot of disgruntled former employees who would delight in destabilizing Trump's tenure even more than they already have. And Gilmore . . . seem[s] particularly invested in undermining the "alt-right" in the lead-up to the next round of elections. Waaaaaay [sic] too much coincidence for me folks. Waaaaaay [sic] too much.

35. In an illustrative comment, one of Mr. Creighton's followers on Twitter commends him for being the "first on the scene" in uncovering this "psyop" (short for "psychological operation," a term used to describe covert operations).²⁷
36. In a companion video entitled "Charlottesville Attack – Brennan Gilmore: Witness or Accessory," (see Exhibit D) uploaded to his YouTube channel with the account name "AmericanEveryman" that same day, Defendant Creighton repeats and expands upon the allegations contained in the article he published on his website.²⁸

CREIGHTON: He just happened to be there, at the specific place, where he could film the whole thing, from beginning, middle, to end. He just happened to have his camera running, he just happened for some reason to record this car driving for five seconds, before it did anything out of the ordinary, and just happened to have just the right message, just the right establishment message for CNN . . .

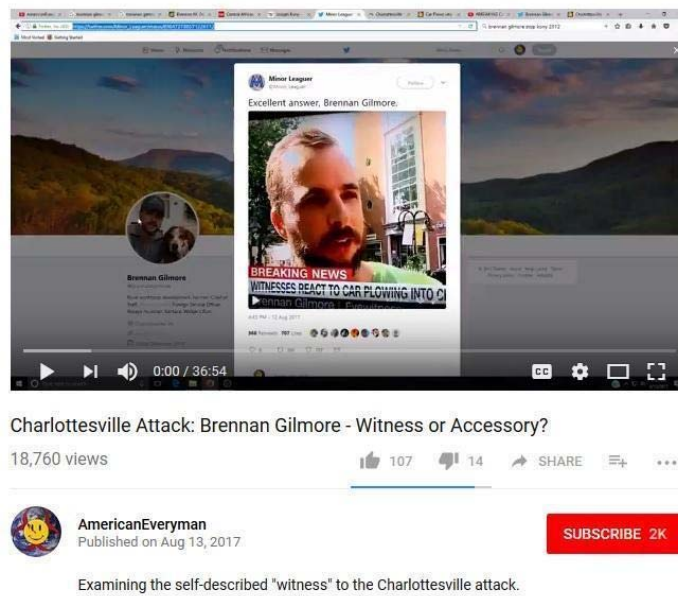

He has ties to special operations, special forces, CIA, State Department, Hillary Clinton, and Tom Perriello, who has a long career of doing this kind of thing. People will call me a conspiracy theorist because what I am suggesting here is that someone had foreknowledge, that this event was going to happen . . . This man has every reason to want to see the support, the base for Donald Trump again mischaracterized as Nazis. He has every reason to do that

This guy just happens to be on that fucking corner with his camera rolling, watching that car drive by for five seconds, and he's former State Department, and close to Tom Perriello, who is also former State Department obviously, he's got a fucking ax to grind, that's one hell of a goddamn coincidence, and you got to be a special kind of stupid to buy that.

38. The next morning, on August 14, 2017, Defendant James Hoft published “Random Man at Protests Interviewed by MSNBC, NY Times Is Deep State Shill Linked to George Soros” on his website Gateway Pundit.²⁹ See Exhibit E. The Gateway Pundit website is viewed approximately 15 million times every month, and considers itself to be the “voice of Middle America.” Lucian B. Wintrich, the Washington, D.C. correspondent for Gateway Pundit, was granted temporary press credentials by the Trump administration and was thus able to attend White House press briefings and ask questions of the press secretary.³⁰
39. In this article, Defendant Hoft asserts unequivocally that Mr. Gilmore is “a deep state shill” who is part of the State Department’s attempt to cover up its involvement in instigating the attack in Charlottesville:

The random Charlottesville observer who was interviewed by MSNBC and liberal outlets turns out to be a deep state shill with links to George Soros. It looks like the State Department was involved in Charlottesville rioting and is trying to cover it up. But after [the] Deep State got caught they are trying to erase this guy from their records . . . The State Department is very familiar with Brennan Gilmore. He was involved in the Kony 2012 operation. The State Department later removed any reference of Brennan. Why would the State Department react in such a way? . . . This weekend Brennan Gilmore happened to be in Charlottesville with the rioters. The media knows exactly who he is yet played it off like a casual observer.

40. Defendant Hoft shared a link to the article with his 83,000 followers on Twitter.³¹ These followers quickly re-posted and shared the article over one hundred times, and they responded with comments such as “Instigated by the Left—as has been happening for years now!”³²
41. On August 15, 2017, Defendant InfoWars, a website owned and operated by Defendant Alex Jones, published an article authored by Defendant Lee Ann McAdoo and an accompanying video, both entitled “Bombshell Connection Between Charlottesville, Soros, CIA.”³³ See Exhibit F. In this video, Defendant Lee Ann McAdoo interviews Defendant Lee Stranahan about the Charlottesville protests and the attack by James Alex Fields Jr. Defendant Stranahan, a former employee of Breitbart News and current employee of RT, a television network funded by the Russian government, suggests that Heather Heyer may have been a “martyr” created by “Soros-funded NGO’s” to orchestrate a “regime change” in the United States. Defendant Stranahan makes clear he believes that Mr. Gilmore was the lynchpin in this alleged attempt by left-wing organizations to lay the groundwork for staging a coup:

STRANAHAN: If you go to Brennan Gilmore’s page, his Twitter page, you’ll see he has a picture of the young woman who was murdered, and you know what it says? “Martyr.” . . . Literally it says “martyr.” You can’t be more explicit than this. So here's what I'm saying. I'm not a conspiracy theorist, I'm a fact-based journalist. The facts are enough. However, the Democrats have investigated Trump for a lot less. For a lot less. They have called for investigations, and secret meetings, they have convened the FBI. When you have this many things going on, I think someone really needs to investigate. . .

[MCADOO scrolls through Gilmore's Twitter page]

STRANAHAN: Yeah, if you scroll...keep scrolling...this is the guy, Brennan Gilmore, and if you scroll down, keep going, it's not too far, you'll see the photo of the young woman...this is abs [sic]...when I saw this, uh, I was shocked...by the way, his bio, if you look at this guy's bio, it says he's with the State Department, and the fact that he called her a 'martyr'. . . I [STRANAHAN looks knowingly at the camera, eyebrows raised, arm raised, MCADOO nods comprehendingly, laughs] don't know, but this is clearly, the way she's being used is she's a martyr to the cause. . . .

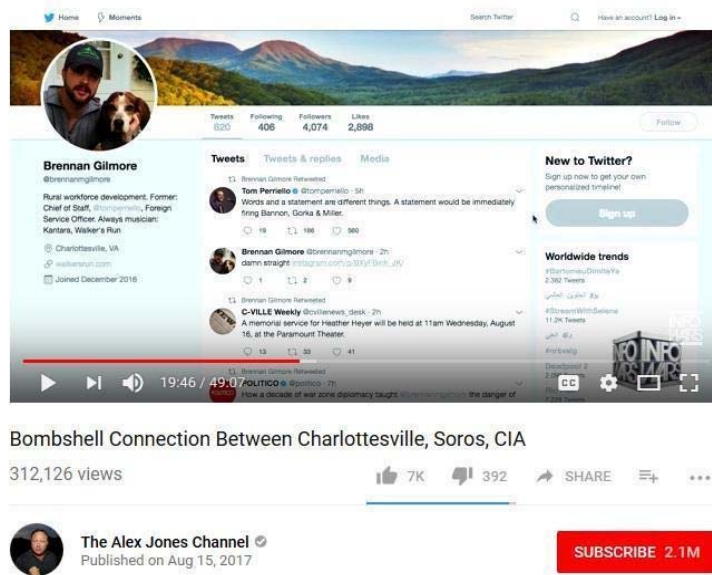

STRANAHAN: And let me point out what's happening. They, uh, they win no matter what they do. Are they trying to get a coup? I think clearly they are. But if they can't get a coup, they'll settle for impeachment. And if they can't get impeachment, they'll settle for smearing Trump and his supporters so much that they'll be able to elect another elitists. Does that make sense? MCADOO: Absolutely.

42. The video, bearing the same title as the InfoWars article, is hosted on a YouTube channel owned by Defendants Alex Jones and InfoWars. The channel has over 2 million subscribers. The video had been watched more than 312,000 times as of January 2018.³⁴

The description of the video reads:

As evidenced this weekend, a civil war is brewing in this country, laying the foundation for a violent coup to take out Trump. Soros-funded NGO's have been able to achieve regime change in other countries by quite literally teaming up with Neo-nazis and "moderate" terrorists. Now, investigative reporter Lee Stranahan reveals the same players involved in the Ukraine overthrow are working behind the scenes to oust President Trump.

43. Defendant Alex Jones shared a link to the InfoWars article and video defaming Mr. Gilmore with his 737,000 followers on Twitter.³⁵ Defendant Jones' followers quickly responded with comments such as "This was coordinated. Not spontaneous"³⁶ and "Obama Clinton coupd'tat in full bloom. We see Comey, lynch, clapper, Brennan, Clintons, FBI, secret service, dnc, democrats in mix."³⁷
44. Defendants Jones and InfoWars continued to spread falsehoods about the Charlottesville protest and attack in the days that followed. On August 14, 2017, Defendant Jones published a post entitled George Soros Needs to be Charged and Arrested for Sedition and Causing Charlottesville on his InfoWars website; in the accompanying video, he alleges

George Soros paid the Charlottesville protestors.³⁸ Defendant Jones published several additional videos in which he characterized the violence in Charlottesville as “staged” and orchestrated by left-wing political operatives and “cut-outs,”³⁹

45. While Defendant Jones later attempted to retract his claim that “Jewish actors” paid by George Soros were responsible for the violence, he doubled down on his efforts to harass and defame Mr. Gilmore in a video entitled Breaking: State Department/CIA Orchestrated Charlottesville Tragedy, posted on YouTube on August 20, 2017,⁴⁰ and on Defendant InfoWars’ website on August 21, 2017.⁴¹ See Exhibit G.
46. In the video, Defendant Jones asserts that the statements he made about Mr. Gilmore were factual and researched:

I did research, and I confirmed it all. They had known CIA and State Department officials in Charlottesville, first tweeting, first being on MSNBC, CNN, NBC. The mayor is involved. Everybody is a cut-out . . .

They got State Department and high-level CIA. One guy is paid 320,000 a year on the payroll of [George] Soros. He doesn’t just get money from Soros, he personally is paid 320 a year, and then he is there—CIA, State Department—and he is on the news. And when people pointed out who he was, they took his name of the State Department website and stuff, but Google has all the [screen] shots of it. I mean it’s like WOW, WOW—CIA? Your senior guys? And you’re so stupid on TV, “oh I saw ‘m run over, I saw the racists, I saw the white supremacists attack, oh I’m the guy being interviewed first . . .” He worked for Podesta too, John Podesta. I’ll give you his name and stuff, we’re gonna play a video of him on the news.

47. The “high-level CIA” and “State Department guy” that Defendant Jones is referring to is Mr. Gilmore. Incredibly, Defendant Jones appears to be suggesting that a campaign donation by George Soros to Tom Perriello’s gubernatorial campaign was in reality a personal payment to Mr. Gilmore.
48. Defendant Jones’ video, which had been watched over 34,000 times as of January 2018, shows various images of Mr. Gilmore, including one alongside a photo of George Soros:

49. In the video, Jones alleges Mr. Gilmore was “involved with the Kony hoax in 2012” and is a “State Department insider with a long history of involvement in psy-ops.” After noting that Mr. Gilmore’s information had been removed from the State Department’s website, Jones concludes that “the elites know we’re on to them and are trying to cover their tracks.”
50. InfoWars’ website is viewed approximately 40 million times every month, and the site consistently ranks among the most popular political websites in the U.S. InfoWars bills and presents itself as a news media outlet. In addition to soliciting advertisers for its website, InfoWars funds its work by the sale of various dietary supplements in its online store, which are featured prominently in each video and on banner ads that appear in each post. Recent estimates of revenue received from online sales suggest that business is good: Defendant Jones stated in 2013 that the online store grossed an average of $9 million in sales annually. Estimates in 2017 indicate that sales could now be as high as $12.5 million annually.⁴²

51. On August 19, 2017, Defendant Allen B. West published “BOMBSHELL: New Evidence Suggests Charlottesville Was a Complete SET-UP” on his website.⁴³ See Exhibit H.
52. The article, authored by Defendant Derrick Wilburn, notes that Mr. Gilmore “worked in Africa as a State Department foreign officer under Hillary Clinton[,] . . . was also involved with the Kony hoax in 2012, and . . . is currently Chief of Staff for Tom Perrielo [sic], who is running for Governor of Virginia and received $380k from George Soros.” It adds:

So the first man on the scene . . . just happened to be a State Department insider with a long history of involvement in psy-ops? If you think this isn’t fishy, how about this – since the Charlottesville protests and his appearance in the media, his information was suddenly removed from State Department websites. We need to clarify that these are early accounts and as yet unverified, but if true this is very, very serious stuff. It points directly to the reality of the “deep state” and more importantly to the lengths that the Soros/Clinton/Obama one-world government cabal will go in order to realize their desires for “fundamental transformation.

52. Defendant West shared a link to the article with his 727,000 followers on Twitter.⁴⁴ Those followers responded with comments such as “[t]he shadow government has a mission to destroy America as we know it,”⁴⁵ and “[t]his whole thing stinks to high heaven. A federal investigation is needed, not some internal self-serving coverup.”⁴⁶

53. There can be no doubt that the Defendants reached hundreds of thousands of viewers and readers with their publications. Their paranoid fantasies have no basis whatsoever in fact and are demonstrably false: while Mr. Gilmore was and continues to be a State Department employee (currently on unpaid leave), was stationed in the Central African Republic, and worked for Tom Perriello’s campaign, he has at no time been employed by the CIA or any other intelligence agency, nor has he been employed by or received payment from George Soros directly. He attended the protest against the “Unite the Right” rally because he opposes racism and bigotry, not because he was sent there by the State Department or any other “deep state” or covert operation.
54. In the months leading up to the rally and counter-protest Mr. Gilmore had been regularly confronted with hateful right-wing memes on social media platforms that advocated using a car as a weapon against protestors. The following meme is similar to the types of memes Mr. Gilmore encountered:⁴⁷

55. Especially concerning to Mr. Gilmore was the potential encouragement of this behavior by those in positions of power. In light of the uptick in demonstrations by Black Lives Matter and other organizations concerned with racism in the United States, lawmakers in at least six states had introduced bills to decriminalize the use of a car to run over protesters or demonstrators who block roadways.⁴⁸ Fox News and the Daily Caller published, and then removed, video and news content that glorified running vehicles into crowds of people at high speeds. “Study the technique,” the article read. “It may prove useful in the next four years.”⁴⁹ Mr. Gilmore was concerned that dangerous backlash against the right of citizens to peacefully demonstrate seemed to be escalating.
56. When he noticed that a driver of a car was behaving erratically and driving rapidly towards a group of protesters, Mr. Gilmore was worried that someone might have taken these perverse suggestions to heart. Tragically, Mr. Gilmore’s fears proved well-founded, as Mr. Fields—who was driving the car that drew Mr. Gilmore’s attention—killed one protestor, Heather Heyer, and injured many others.
57. Mr. Gilmore’s concern for the safety of other protesters and his entirely reasonable desire to provide a public service by sharing with the world what he witnessed in Charlottesville was sufficient to put him in the defendants’ crosshairs. The defendants crafted their delusional narrative about him from the barest outline of Mr. Gilmore's resume, which he freely shares on social media. Mr. Gilmore was an easy target when Defendants were looking for a scapegoat to blame "both sides" for the violence that occurred that day.⁵⁰

58. The defendants thrust Mr. Gilmore—an innocent bystander with no desire for public attention—into the public eye by intentionally publishing baseless allegations about his professional life and goals. The defendants' reckless disregard for the truth of their allegations about Mr. Gilmore directly and foreseeably caused the harassment and threats to his personal safety that followed.

D. Threats and Harassment

59. As soon as the first publications alleging that Mr. Gilmore was a "deep state operative" who helped orchestrate the violence in Charlottesville appeared online, Mr. Gilmore became the subject of a barrage of harassing and threatening messages that made him fear for his personal safety as well as the safety of his family members. To this day, Mr. Gilmore continues to experience the effects of the hatred and violence directed at him as a direct and foreseeable result of Defendants' reckless decisions to publish these baseless allegations about him.
60. Scott Creighton published his article and video about Mr. Gilmore in the early hours of August 13, 2017. That very same day, anonymous users of the internet forum 8chan shared Mr. Gilmore's address of record:

Creighton's publication.⁵¹ Other Twitter users threatening Mr. Gilmore used language that closely parses the language used in the article published by Defendant Jim Hoft, who referred to Mr. Gilmore as a "globalist shill," thereby leaving little doubt about what moved them to seek out Mr. Gilmore.⁵²

63. In light of the threats and harassment directed at him and the publication of their home address by posters on 8chan, Mr. Gilmore contacted his parents to ensure that they were taking appropriate measures to protect themselves. Mr. Gilmore's parents live within a short drive of Charlottesville, and Mr. Gilmore was particularly concerned for their safety given the number of neo-Nazis who had descended on the region for the "Unite the Right" rally, with demonstrated violent tendencies. Acting on the advice of the FBI, he instructed his parents to reach out to the local police department, which they did. Alarmed by what they learned, local law enforcement devised a scheme to detect any unusual car traffic in the neighborhood. In addition, Mr. Gilmore's brother-in-law, who is an active-duty service member, offered to spend the night with Mr. Gilmore's parents and bring the handgun he keeps in his home with him for protection.
64. Fearing for his own safety in addition to that of his parents, Mr. Gilmore also contacted the FBI and the State Department's Bureau of Diplomatic Security. Mr. Gilmore spent hours discussing protective measures for himself and his family members with various law enforcement agencies in the days that followed.
65. Egged on by the campaign of vile lies that Defendants waged against him, Twitter and YouTube users continued to threaten and harass Mr. Gilmore, telling him he is a "George Soros HACK” and that “word is out on [him],” they “have [his] number,” he is “going straight to hell” and they hope that his “family feels the violence [he] protect[s]”⁵³, and implicitly threatening him with violence by referencing the Comet Ping Pong pizzeria incident⁵⁴:

66. There were dozens of attempts to log-in to Mr. Gilmore's various online accounts, including email and social media in the days that followed publication of the conspiracy theories.
67. Mr. Gilmore and his family were not only threatened online. On Monday, August 14, 2017, Mr. Gilmore was physically accosted on the street in Charlottesville by an unknown person after concluding a brief television interview describing what he witnessed the day before. The unknown person aggressively questioned Mr. Gilmore about his ties to Perriello, Charlottesville Mayor Mike Signer, and his work overseas.
68. In addition, shortly after the Defendants started their defamatory campaign against him, Mr. Gilmore received a letter at his parents' address with a suspicious powdery residue and a letter explaining why Mr. Gilmore would "burn in hell." The receipt of this letter led to an additional visit to the property by local police, and although the powdery residue turned out to be harmless upon analysis, the letter remains in the possession of the State Department Diplomatic Security Office.
69. The threats and harassment have continued well past August 2017. On February 14, 2018, Twitter user "SonofNewo"⁵⁵ retweeted a post about an upcoming performance of Mr. Gilmore's band, adding the caption "Will Brennan Gilmore play his tunes from the middle of 4th Street?"⁵⁶

⁵⁵ See SonofNewo, YOUTUBE, <https://www.youtube.com/user/SonofNewo/feed>. "SonofNewo" has posted videos to his YouTube channel (under the same pseudonym) about the Charlottesville attack, often targeting Mr. Gilmore and accusing him of being a member of the "deep state."

⁵⁶ SonofNewo (@SonofNewo), TWITTER (Feb. 14, 2018, 3:32 AM), <https://twitter.com/SonofNewo/status/963737755657400320>. The "4th Street" reference alludes to Fourth Street in Charlottesville, which intersects with Water Street East. Mr. Gilmore's video of the Charlottesville attack shows Fields speeding down Fourth Street before ramming into the crowd at the intersection with Water Street.

70. Two minutes later, SonofNewo posted, "I dunno, should I go check out this concert? Leave your thoughts below!"⁵⁷
71. SonofNewo's followers encouraged him to attend, with one user, alias "O'Neil," tweeting "Go INCOG[nito]." ⁵⁸ Given the extent to which SonofNewo had previously endorsed Defendants' lies about Mr. Gilmore, the clear implication and tone of these tweets was to threaten Mr. Gilmore. Upon learning of these tweets, Mr. Gilmore feared for his safety and for the safety of his band mates and concert-goers. He contacted the concert venue and alerted them to the threats, and the venue security team in turn contacted the police.
72. After SonofNewo's tweets and videos, Mr. Gilmore noticed an uptick in online threats and harassment. For example, in response to a scientific article Mr. Gilmore shared in a public Facebook post on February 19, 2018, an individual named Henry Fowler (not known to Mr. Gilmore) left the following post threatening Mr. Gilmore's life:

⁵⁷ SonofNewo (@SonofNewo), TWITTER (Feb. 14, 2018, 3:34 AM), <https://twitter.com/SonofNewo/status/963738293392244737>.

The Rivanna River is a river in Virginia that runs near Mr. Gilmore's house. The clear implication and tone of Fowler's post was to threaten Mr. Gilmore and to make him fear for his safety.

E. The Defendants Knew or Should Have Known that the Harassment Would Ensure

73. All Defendants knew or should have known from recent, publicized experiences that their defamatory publications about Mr. Gilmore would incite harassing and threatening messages against him in Virginia. Defendants' audience routinely answers calls to action with violence and anger.
74. In the fall of 2016, Defendants Alex Jones and InfoWars amplified a false conspiracy theory claiming that Comet Ping Pong, a pizzeria based in Washington, D.C., was involved in an underground child sex ring run by then-presidential candidate Hillary Clinton.⁵⁹ After Defendants published these false statements, an InfoWars reader from North Carolina drove to the pizzeria, entered the restaurant brandishing a rifle, a handgun, and a knife, and fired his rifle inside the restaurant at least one time before pointing it at an employee. The threats and online abuse that followed targeted not only the owner and employees of Comet Ping Pong, but also neighboring businesses who internet users thought to be implicated in the conspiracy.⁶⁰

75. After InfoWars reporter Owen Shroyer published a podcast tying East Side Pies, a chain of pizza restaurants in Austin, Texas, to the baseless conspiracy theory, those owners were also targeted by phone threats, harassment, and vandalism of one of its delivery trucks with a vulgar epithet.⁶¹ The circumstances surrounding these events were widely publicized in national news,⁶² and Defendant Alex Jones has acknowledged and apologized for his role in promoting the conspiracy theory.⁶³
76. After the tragic December 2012 mass shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut, Defendants Alex Jones, InfoWars, and Scott Creighton published false statements claiming that the mass shooting did not actually happen and was a government-staged “inside job” designed to bolster support for gun control. 77. In 2014, a self-proclaimed Sandy Hook “truther” was sentenced for harassing the sister of a teacher who was killed while hiding her first-grade students in a classroom closet during the massacre.⁶⁵ This harassment and subsequent convictions have been detailed in multiple national publications.
78. More recently, Defendants Alex Jones and InfoWars published false claims about the 2017 mass shooting in Las Vegas that left fifty-nine people dead and hundreds more injured. Referring to the racist hoax concerning the former president’s birth certificate that he has helped propagate, Defendant Alex Jones claimed that “Vegas is as phony as a three-dollar bill or as Obama’s birth certificate.”⁶⁶ Soon thereafter, survivors of the massacre became victims of a predictable wave of online threats and harassment. One survivor of a bullet wound to the head received messages such as “[y]ou are a lying piece of shit and I hope someone truly shoots you in the head.” Still another survivor was told, “[y]our soul is disgusting and dark! You will pay for the consequences!”⁶⁷

80. These and other conspiracy theories surrounding the Sutherland Springs attack recently led the church’s pastor, whose 14 year-old daughter was killed in the shooting, to become the target of gruesome threats of violence. On March 5, 2018, two individuals showed up to the church and “continually yelled and screamed and hollered and told [him] he was gonna hang [him] from a tree, and pee on [him] while [he is] hanging.”⁷⁰
81. Around April 2017, Defendants Alex Jones and InfoWars made a series of false statements against Chobani, LLC (“Chobani”). In a video post featuring Defendant Lee Ann McAdoo, among others, these defendants claimed that the yogurt company’s practice of hiring migrant workers and refugees brought “migrant rapists” and disease to the areas surrounding its Idaho factory.⁷¹ Defendant Lee Stranahan similarly authored an article for Breitbart News alleging that Chobani was responsible for local crimes committed by Muslim refugees.⁷² These false statements harmed both employees and other members of the Idaho community associated with Chobani. apologized for and retracted his inflammatory comments. The circumstances surrounding these events were widely publicized on national news.⁷³

82. As recently as this month, Defendants Alex Jones, InfoWars, and Jim Hoft have promoted conspiracy theories about the February 14, 2018 shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida, which claimed the lives of 17 students and educators. These defendants have endeavored to discredit student survivors who have, in the wake of the massacre, advocated for action by legislators and politicians to curb gun violence.⁷⁴
83. Defendants Alex Jones and InfoWars promote violence against their political enemies. On March 30, 2017, Defendant Alex Jones posted an online clip in which he called a Democratic congressman a “son of a bitch” and a “goddamn fucker” among other pejoratives and threatened to “beat” the congressman’s “goddamn ass.” He spent the summer of 2017 regularly telling followers of InfoWars and his radio show that the political left was on the verge of starting a civil war, and has encouraged violence against “leftists” and Democrats in response. In a June 23, 2017 broadcast, less than two months before the Charlottesville rally and attack, Defendant Alex Jones told his followers that “we have to start getting ready for insurrection and civil war because they’re really pushing it.”⁷⁵

84. Similarly, Defendant Jim Hoft has an extensive history of inciting harassment by spreading misinformation through his website Gateway Pundit. To take but one example: on or around January 11, 2017, Gateway Pundit falsely claimed that an editor for the Washington Post was secretly taking photos of Secretary of State Rex Tillerson's notes during his confirmation hearing. The editor has been subjected to intense online harassment as a result of this publication. She has since chronicled her experiences in an online article for the paper.⁷⁶
85. In light of the aforementioned highly publicized events, all Defendants knew or should have known that their defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore would incite their reading and viewing audiences to direct further harm toward Mr. Gilmore in Virginia. The harassment, threats and intimidation that ensued were entirely foreseeable and caused by Defendants' lies about Mr. Gilmore.

F. Defendants' Defamatory Publications Harmed Mr. Gilmore Personally and Professionally

86. Before Defendants' attacks, Mr. Gilmore earned the reputation of being a patriotic and honorable citizen who had dedicated over 15 years of service to the United States. The publication of false and defamatory information about Mr. Gilmore by Defendants has caused irreparable damage to this reputation and threatened his physical and emotional well-being. In short, these lies have deprived him of his livelihood and life's passion. Moreover, Defendants' actions have punished Mr. Gilmore for participating in one of the essential cornerstones of our democracy: civic engagement.

i. Defendants' Defamatory Publications Have Threatened Physical Harm to Mr. Gilmore

88. Fanning the flames of false conspiracies about child sex trafficking at Comet Ping Pong translated to real-world harm. Likewise, it was foreseeable that publishing lies about Mr. Gilmore would threaten bodily harm to him and his family. By good fortune and swift precaution to alert the police and authorities of potential threats against him, Mr. Gilmore was able to avoid actual physical harm. But it was not for lack of trying: the unknown chemical substance mailed to his home and the sudden approach of a hostile stranger on the street foreshadow the connection to some of the deeper threats lurking online, many of which materialize into physical danger.⁷⁷ As evidenced by the threats he received in February, Mr. Gilmore continues to receive threats of physical harm because of the lies that Defendants spread about him.

ii. Defendants' Defamatory Publications Have Caused Emotional Harm to Mr. Gilmore

89. Mr. Gilmore has experienced severe emotional distress as a result of Defendants' deliberate campaign to portray him as a "CIA asset" and "deep state shill" due to the defamation, harassment, and threats to his safety that this campaign directly caused. The presence of Defendants' widely-available articles and videos has not only jeopardized Mr. Gilmore's sense of safety and well-being, but it has also polluted a simple Google search for his name. As a result, Mr. Gilmore fears losing potential friends or romantic interests if an acquaintance finds any one of Defendants' defamatory articles. Mr. Gilmore also continues to fear additional online harassment and unpredictable physical harm. Since these articles were first published, Mr. Gilmore has had to rely on the assistance of a therapist to address the substantial emotional stress of being the target of a deluge of threats as well as his ongoing fear of vile online and in-person harassment.

iii. Defendants' Claims Have Done Mr. Gilmore Irreparable Professional Harm

90. As an entrepreneur, Mr. Gilmore must rely on maintaining a spotless reputation of credibility and integrity to achieve his professional aims. In his current role as Vice President for Operations of Wize Solutions, a small business venture focused on rural workforce development, Mr. Gilmore will not be able to continue in his current leadership capacity if he cannot count on the reputation he has worked so hard to develop. The ready presence of false information that paints him in such a negative light results in severe skepticism among those interested in working with the company. Mr. Gilmore has been consistently questioned by professional contacts about the derogatory information published on Defendants' websites, and it is nearly certain that many other potential clients and partners decided not to pursue business relationships with Wize as a result of reviewing said information. Thus, Mr. Gilmore may need to remove himself altogether from the company's client-facing work out of a duty not to harm the fledgling business.
91. Although Mr. Gilmore has dedicated his career to the service of the United States' diplomatic missions abroad, his illustrious diplomatic career is likely irreparably damaged because of Defendants' reckless acts. When Mr. Gilmore returns to the State Department, it will be exceedingly difficult for him to serve as a diplomat to another nation, as foreign officials will certainly research his background and find the shocking and threatening information published by Defendants, including allegations that he is not actually a diplomat, but a covert CIA agent.

92. Moreover, several high-profile Trump Administration officials and members of Congress have expressed their sincere belief in the conspiracy theories promoted by Defendants and suggested that the government needs to be purged of so-called “deep state” actors.⁷⁸ At the heart of Defendants’ lies about Mr. Gilmore is the allegation that he is exactly the type of “deep state” actor that should be purged from government. When Mr. Gilmore returns to the State Department, government officials who have endorsed Defendants’ lies will work to harm Mr. Gilmore’s career or oust him from government service entirely.
93. In the days immediately following the “Unite the Right” rally, dozens of people publicly called for Attorney General Sessions, President Trump, and Fox News Host Sean Hannity to open an investigation into Mr. Gilmore’s alleged role in the attack.
94. U.S. Representative Louis Gohmert called for a Department of Justice investigation into Virginia Governor Terry McAuliffe, Charlottesville Mayor Michael Signer, and rally organizer Jason Kessler for their alleged roles in the violent clashes that took place at the rally.⁷⁹
95. Republican Congressman Paul Gosar recently told Vice News that he believes that the Jewish businessman George Soros—who Defendants claim paid Mr. Gilmore to attend the rally—was the behind-the-scenes organizer of the “Unite the Right” rally.⁸⁰
96. In December 2017, Republican Congressman Francis Rooney called for a purge of FBI and Justice Department agents whom he believed were working for the “deep state.”⁸¹
97. In early February of this year, President Trump authorized the release of the so-called

“Nunes Memo,” published by the Republicans on the House Intelligence Committee alleging that the FBI abused its power in surveilling Donald Trump’s 2016 presidential campaign.⁸²

98. Conspiracy theorists, including Defendant Alex Jones, have capitalized on this memo to bolster their theory that there is a “deep state” conspiracy to undermine President Trump and his administration.⁸³
99. Former Republican Congressman Jason Chaffetz also believes in the “deep state,” and claimed on national television that he “lived through it.”⁸⁴
100. Indeed, public servants who have been labeled “deep state” actors, such as Andrew McCabe, have already been forced out of long and illustrious careers in government service.⁸⁵
101. President Trump has expressed his belief in conspiracy theories pushed by InfoWars on several occasions,⁸⁶ and allegedly called Jones to thank him for helping him win the 2016 U.S. presidential election.⁸⁷ Alex Jones claims to have spoken to President Trump at least

104. On January 2, 2018, Eric Trump tweeted, “Shocking . . . once again, here are the @Twitter “suggestions” of who I should follow. #DeepState.”
105. The blatant support for Defendants’ conspiracy theories among members of the highest levels of government, including the President of the United States, leaves no doubt that Mr. Gilmore’s career prospects have been seriously injured by the defamatory falsehoods about him that Defendants published.

106. It is highly unlikely that Mr. Gilmore will be able to continue engaging in diplomatic relationships on behalf of the United States when his loyalty to his country has been so profoundly questioned by the wealth of public information propagated and promoted by Defendants, emboldened by the support for their theories and validation of their outlets by the current Presidential Administration.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I: DEFAMATION (Against All Defendants)

107. Mr. Gilmore re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs into Count I as if fully set forth herein.
108. Defendants’ statements described above (collectively, the “defamatory statements”) are false and defamatory.

109. Collectively, Defendants published to millions of viewers of Twitter, YouTube, and other platforms available to and directed at Virginia audiences, false statements, including the false statement that Mr. Gilmore was a “deep state shill with links to George Soros.” Defendants’ defamatory statements were subsequently and virally shared and republished on a wide range of websites.
110. Defendants’ defamatory statements were intended as assertions of fact and/or are defamatory by implication, as the Defendants, through the plain and natural meaning of their statements (and all inferences, implications, and insinuations fairly attributable to them), intended for their readers and listeners to accept as fact their defamatory assertions against Mr. Gilmore.
111. Defendants’ defamatory statements concerned Mr. Gilmore and had him as their primary subject. The Defendants’ defamatory statements were designed to (1) injure Mr. Gilmore’s reputation, (2) subject Mr. Gilmore to contempt and disgrace, and (3) incite harassment of and threats directed at Mr. Gilmore.
112. Defendants acted with actual malice. Their defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore’s background and role in the Charlottesville protest and attack were made with knowledge of their falsehood or reckless disregard for their truth or falsity.
113. Defendants’ statements are defamatory per se because they impute to Mr. Gilmore the commission of a criminal offense involving moral turpitude—in this instance, that Mr. Gilmore, as part of some “deep-state” conspiracy, orchestrated James Alex Fields, Jr.’s car attack in Charlottesville on August 12, 2017, which killed one person and injured many others. If true, these allegations would cause Mr. Gilmore to be indicted and punished.

Defendants' statements also prejudice Mr. Gilmore in his profession as a Foreign Service Officer at the U.S. State Department.

114. Defendants' defamatory statements harmed and continue to harm Mr. Gilmore both personally and professionally. Defendants are liable to Mr. Gilmore for the personal and professional harm they caused by defaming Mr. Gilmore in an amount greater than $75,000 to be determined at trial.

COUNTS II-IV: DEFAMATION FOR STATEMENTS PUBLISHED IN AUGUST 13, 2017 ARTICLE ENTITLED "CHARLOTTESVILLE ATTACK, BRENNAN GILMORE AND...THE STOP KONY 2012 PYSOP? WHAT?" (EXHIBITS A-C)
(Against Defendant Creighton)

115. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs to Counts II, III, and IV as if fully set forth herein.
116. Defendant Creighton's statements concerned Mr. Gilmore and had him as their primary subject.
117. Defendant Creighton's following statements are false and defamatory:

"...Brennan Gilmore, the former State Department employee..."

This statement is false. Mr. Gilmore is, and was at the time Defendant Creighton's article was published, a current employee of the State Department on unpaid leave.

118. "...[W]ho just HAPPENED to be at the exact right place at the exact right time already filming with his camera to capture the entire event from beginning to end."

The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore had advance knowledge that Fields was going to plow his car into the crowd of peaceful protesters, killing Heather Heyer. This statement is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication. In fact, Mr. Gilmore had no prior knowledge of Fields' attack.

119. “And he just HAPPENED to have the pre-approved establishment message canned and ready to go for a CNN interview on the scene.”

The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore had advance knowledge that Fields was going to plow his car into the crowd of peaceful protesters, killing Heather Heyer. This statement is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication. In fact, Mr. Gilmore had no prior knowledge of Fields’ attack. Furthermore, the plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore’s remarks during the CNN interview were “pre-approved” to fit an “establishment” narrative as part of some conspiracy, and is false. Mr. Gilmore’s remarks during the CNN interview were his own, and described his own opinions about what happened in Charlottesville based on his personal observation of the events that transpired.

120. “All this being said, is it possible this man with links to Special Ops and CIA and various other black ops kinds of actors just HAPPENED to be there at that particular moment in history? Yeah, I guess that’s possible, if you’re into coincidence theories I suppose. But I’m not into such things. Clearly the State Department has a lot of disgruntled former employees who would delight in destabilizing Trump’s tenure even more than they already have. And Gilmore, like Tom, seem particularly invested in undermining the “alt-right” in the lead-up to the next round of elections. Waaaaaay too much coincidence for me folks. Waaaaaay too much.”

Mr. Gilmore is not a “disgruntled former employee,” as he is still an employee of the State Department. This statement is false. Furthermore, the plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore was part of a conspiracy to incite violence at Charlottesville, resulting in the death of Heather Heyer, and the injury of countless others. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

121. Defendant Creighton republished the same or substantially similar statements in at least two other forums, “Before It’s News” and “Scott of the Times,”⁹³ on August 13, and therefore Counts III and IV reincorporate and re-allege the same facts as Count II for each additional publication.
122. Defendant Creighton’s statements were designed to injure Mr. Gilmore’s reputation, subject Mr. Gilmore to contempt and disgrace, and incite harassment and threats directed at Mr. Gilmore; indeed, Defendant Creighton’s statements had their intended effect.
123. By publishing such statements, Defendant Creighton did cause harm to Mr. Gilmore.
124. Defendant Creighton acted with actual malice. His defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore’s background and role in the Charlottesville protest and attack were made with knowledge of their falsehood or reckless disregard for their truth or falsity.
125. At a minimum, Defendant Creighton’s statements were negligent.
126. Defendant Creighton’s statements are defamatory per se because they impute to Mr. Gilmore the commission of a criminal offense involving moral turpitude—in this instance that Mr. Gilmore planned or participated in James Alex Fields, Jr.’s car attack in Charlottesville on August 12, 2017, which killed one person and injured many others. If true, these allegations would cause Mr. Gilmore to be indicted and punished. Defendant Creighton’s statements also prejudice Mr. Gilmore in his profession as a Foreign Service Officer at the U.S. State Department.

⁹³ See, e.g., Scott Creighton, *Charlottesville Attack, Brennan Gilmore and... the Stop Kony 2012 PYSOP? 127. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Creighton's false statements, Mr. Gilmore has suffered presumed damages as well as actual reputational, emotional, and professional injuries, and is liable for the harm he caused by defaming Mr. Gilmore in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT V: DEFAMATION FOR STATEMENTS PUBLISHED IN AUGUST 13, 2017 VIDEO ENTITLED "CHARLOTTESVILLE ATTACK - BRENNAN
GILMORE: WITNESS OR ACCESSORY" (EXHIBIT D)
(Against Defendant Creighton)

128. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs to Count V as if fully set forth herein.
129. Defendant Creighton's statements concerned Mr. Gilmore and had him as their primary subject.
130. Defendant Creighton's following statements are false and defamatory:

"He just happened to be there, at the specific place, where he could film the whole thing, from beginning, middle, to end. He just happened to have his camera running, he just happened for some reason to record this car driving for five seconds, before it did anything out of the ordinary, and just happened to have just the right message, just the right establishment message for CNN . . ."

The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore was part of some alleged conspiracy to incite violence at Charlottesville, resulting in the death of Heather Heyer, and the injury of countless others. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

131. "He has ties to special operations, special forces, CIA, State Department, Hillary Clinton, and Tom Perriello, who has a long career of doing this kind of thing. People will call me a conspiracy theorist because what I am suggesting here is that someone had foreknowledge, that this event was going to happen . . . This man has every reason to want to see the support, the base for Donald Trump again mischaracterized as Nazis. He has every reason to do that . . .”

The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore had “foreknowledge” of Fields’ attack, Mr. Gilmore was part of a conspiracy to incite violence at Charlottesville, resulting in the death of Heather Heyer, and the injury of countless others, and that Mr. Gilmore’s recording of the attack, posting on Twitter, and statements to the press as a witness to the attack were done to “mischaracterize” Donald Trump’s base as Nazis. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

132. “This guy just happens to be on that fucking corner with his camera rolling, watching that car drive by for five seconds, and he's former State Department, and close to Tom Perriello, who is also former State Department obviously, he's got a fucking ax to grind, that's one hell of a goddamn coincidence, and you got to be a special kind of stupid to buy that.”

The statement that Mr. Gilmore is “former State Department” is false: he is, and was at the time of Defendant Creighton’s video, a current State Department employee on unpaid leave. Nor did Mr. Gilmore have a “fucking ax to grind.” The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore was part of a conspiracy to incite violence at Charlottesville, resulting in the death of Heather Heyer, and the injury of countless others. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

133. By publishing such statements, Defendant Creighton did cause harm to Mr. Gilmore.
134. Defendant Creighton acted with actual malice. His defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore’s background and role in the Charlottesville protest and attack were made with knowledge of their falsehood or reckless disregard for their truth or falsity.
135. At a minimum, Defendant Creighton’s statements were negligent.

136. Defendant Creighton's statements are defamatory per se because they impute to Mr. Gilmore the commission of some criminal offense involving moral turpitude—in this instance, that Mr. Gilmore planned or participated in James Alex Fields, Jr.'s car attack in Charlottesville on August 12, 2017, which killed one person and injured many others. If true, these allegations would cause Mr. Gilmore to be indicted and punished. Defendant Creighton's statements also prejudice Mr. Gilmore in his profession as a Foreign Service Officer at the United States State Department.
137. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Creighton's false statements, Mr. Gilmore has suffered presumed damages as well as actual reputational, emotional, and professional injuries, and is liable for the harm he caused by defaming Mr. Gilmore in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT VI: DEFAMATION FOR STATEMENTS PUBLISHED IN AUGUST 14, 2017 ARTICLE ENTITLED "RANDOM MAN AT PROTESTS INTERVIEWED
BY MSNBC, NY TIMES IS DEEP STATE SHILL LINKED TO GEORGE SOROS" (EXHIBIT E)
(Against Defendant Jim Hoft)

138. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs to Count VI as if fully set forth herein.
139. Defendant Hoft's statements concerned Mr. Gilmore and had him as their primary subject.
140. Defendant Hoft's statements are false and defamatory:

"The random Charlottesville observer who was interviewed by MSNBC and liberal outlets [Gilmore] turns out to be a deep state shill with links to George Soros."

Mr. Gilmore denies being a "deep state shill," and this statement is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

141. “It looks like the State Department was involved in Charlottesville rioting and is trying to cover it up. But after [the] Deep State got caught they are trying to erase this guy from their records . . . The State Department is very familiar with Brennan Gilmore. He was involved in the Kony 2012 operation. The State Department later removed any reference of Brennan. Why would the State Department react in such a way?”

The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore was part of a government conspiracy to incite violence at Charlottesville, resulting in the death of Heather Heyer, and the injury of countless others. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

142. “This weekend Brennan Gilmore happened to be in Charlottesville with the rioters. The media knows exactly who he is yet played it off like a casual observer.”

The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore was part of a government conspiracy to incite violence at Charlottesville, resulting in the death of Heather Heyer, and the injury of countless others. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

143. Defendant Hoft’s statements were designed to injure Mr. Gilmore’s reputation, subject Mr. Gilmore to contempt and disgrace, and incite harassment and threats directed at Mr. Gilmore; indeed, Defendant Hoft’s statements had their intended effect.

144. By publishing such statements, Defendant Hoft did cause harm to Mr. Gilmore.

145. Indeed, Defendant Hoft acted with actual malice.

146. His defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore’s background and role in the Charlottesville protest and attack were made with knowledge of their falsehood or reckless disregard for their truth or falsity.

147. At a minimum, Defendant Hoft’s statements were negligent.

148. Defendant Hoft's statements are defamatory per se because they impute to Mr. Gilmore the commission of some criminal offense involving moral turpitude—in this instance, that Mr. Gilmore, as part of some “deep-state” conspiracy, planned or participated in James Alex Fields, Jr.'s car attack in Charlottesville on August 12, 2017, which killed one person and injured many others. If true, these allegations would cause Mr. Gilmore to be indicted and punished. Defendant Hoft's statements also prejudice Mr. Gilmore in his profession as a Foreign Service Officer at the United States State Department.
149. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Hoft's false statements, Mr. Gilmore has suffered presumed damages as well as actual reputational, emotional, and professional injuries, and is liable for the harm he caused by defaming Mr. Gilmore in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT VII: DEFAMATION FOR STATEMENTS PUBLISHED IN AUGUST 15, 2017 ARTICLE AND VIDEO “BOMBSHELL CONNECTION BETWEEN CHARLOTTESVILLE, SOROS, CIA” (EXHIBIT F)
(Against Defendants Alex Jones; InfoWars, LLC; Free Speech Systems, LLC; Lee Stranahan; and Lee Ann McAdoo)

150. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs to Count VII as if fully set forth herein.
151. Defendants Stranahan and McAdoo's statements, which were published by Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and/or Free Speech Systems, LLC, concerned Mr. Gilmore and had him as their primary subject.
152. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo's statements are false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication:

STRANAHAN: If you go to Brennan Gilmore's page, his Twitter page, you'll see he has a picture of the young woman who was murdered, and you know what it says? “Martyr.” . . . Literally it says “martyr.” You can't be more explicit than this. So here's what I'm saying. I'm not a conspiracy theorist,

I'm a fact-based journalist. The facts are enough. However, the Democrats have investigated Trump for a lot less. For a lot less. They have called for investigations, and secret meetings, they have convened the FBI. When you have this many things going on, I think someone really needs to investigate...

[MCADOO scrolls through Gilmore's Twitter page]

STRANAHAN: Yeah, if you scroll...keep scrolling...this is the guy, Brennan Gilmore, and if you scroll down, keep going, it's not too far, you'll see the photo of the young woman...this is abs [sic]...when I saw this, uh, I was shocked...by the way, his bio, if you look at this guy's bio, it says he's with the State Department, and the fact that he called her a 'martyr'. . . I [STRANAHAN looks knowingly at the camera, eyebrows raised, arm raised, MCADOO nods comprehendingly, laughs] don't know, but this is clearly, the way she's being used is she's a martyr to the cause...

STRANAHAN: And let me point out what's happening. They, uh, they win no matter what they do. Are they trying to get a coup? I think clearly they are. But if they can't get a coup, they'll settle for impeachment. And if they can't get impeachment, they'll settle for smearing Trump and his supporters so much that they'll be able to elect another elitists. Does that make sense?

MCADOO: Absolutely.

153. The plain and natural meaning of these statements are that Mr. Gilmore, because of his employment with the State Department, and because he posted a photo of Heather Heyer that referred to her as a "martyr" on his Twitter page, was involved in a conspiracy to exploit Heather Heyer's death to stage a coup resulting in the removal of Donald Trump as President. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.
154. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo's statements were designed to injure Mr. Gilmore's reputation, subject Mr. Gilmore to contempt and disgrace, and incite harassment and threats directed at Mr. Gilmore; indeed, Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo's statements had their intended effect.

155. By publishing such statements, Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo did cause harm to Mr. Gilmore.
156. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo acted with actual malice. Their defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore's background and role in the Charlottesville protest and attack were made with knowledge of their falsehood or reckless disregard for their truth or falsity. At a minimum, Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo's statements were negligent.
157. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo's statements are defamatory per se because they impute to Mr. Gilmore the commission of some criminal offense involving moral turpitude—in this instance, that Mr. Gilmore planned or participated in James Alex Fields, Jr.'s car attack in Charlottesville on August 12, 2017, which killed one person and injured many others, as part of a conspiracy to stage a "coup" and overthrow a sitting president. If true, these allegations would cause Mr. Gilmore to be indicted and punished.
158. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo's statements also prejudice Mr. Gilmore in his profession as a Foreign Service Officer at the United States State Department.
159. At the time the defamatory statements were made, Defendant McAdoo was an employee and/or agent of Defendants Alex Jones, Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems.
160. Defendant McAdoo was acting within the scope of her employment and/or agency as a reporter for Defendants Alex Jones, Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems when she authored the article, "Bombshell Connection Between Charlottesville, Soros, CIA" and appeared in the accompanying video by the same name.

161. Defendants Alex Jones, Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems participated in, produced, and ratified Defendant McAdoo's conduct.
162. At the time the defamatory statements were made, Defendant Stranahan was an employee and/or agent of Defendants Alex Jones, Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems.
163. Defendant Stranahan was acting within the scope of his employment and/or agency for Defendants Alex Jones, Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems when he made defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore that appeared in the article, "Bombshell Connection Between Charlottesville, Soros, CIA" and the accompanying video by the same name.
164. Defendants Alex Jones, Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems participated in, produced, and ratified Defendant Stranahan's conduct.
165. Defendants Jones, Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems are legally responsible for the acts of their employees, agents, or servants, pursuant to the doctrine of respondeat superior.
166. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants Jones, InfoWars, Free Speech Systems, Stranahan, and McAdoo's false statements, Mr. Gilmore has suffered presumed damages as well as actual reputational, emotional, and professional injuries, and is liable for the harm he caused by defaming Mr. Gilmore in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT VIII: DEFAMATION FOR STATEMENTS PUBLISHED IN VIDEO ENTITLED "BREAKING: STATE DEPARTMENT/CIA ORCHESTRATED CHARLOTTESVILLE TRAGEDY" (EXHIBIT G)
(Against Defendants Alex Jones; InfoWars, LLC; and Free Speech Systems, LLC)

167. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs to Count VIII as if fully set forth herein.
168. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems' statements concerned Mr. Gilmore and had him as their primary subject.

169. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems' statements are false and defamatory:

“I did research, and I confirmed it all. They had known CIA and State Department officials in Charlottesville, first tweeting, first being on MSNBC, CNN, NBC. The mayor is involved. Everybody is a cut-out. . .”

This statement refers to Brennan Gilmore, and his distribution of the video of Fields' attack on Twitter and subsequent appearances on CNN, MSNBC, and other news outlets. The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore works for the CIA and was a “cut-out” for an alleged CIA/State Department conspiracy to incite violence in Charlottesville. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

170. “They got State Department and high-level CIA. One guy [Gilmore] is paid 320 thousand a year on the payroll of [George] Soros. He doesn't just get money from Soros, he personally is paid 320 a year, and then he is there—CIA, State Department—and he is on the news.”

Mr. Gilmore is not “high-level CIA.” Nor was he paid 320 thousand a year by George Soros. These statements are false.

171. “And when people pointed out who he was, they took his name of the State Department website and stuff, but Google has all the [screen] shots of it. I mean it's like WOW, WOW—CIA? Your senior guys? And you're so stupid on TV, “oh I saw ‘m run over, I saw the races, I saw the white supremacists attack, oh I'm the guy being interviewed first . . .” He worked for Podesta too, John Podesta. I'll give you his name and stuff, we're gonna play a video of him on the news.”

Mr. Gilmore is not a CIA operative, and never worked for John Podesta. The plain and natural meaning of Defendant Jones and InfoWars' statements is that Mr. Gilmore was a CIA operative involved in an alleged government conspiracy to incite violence in Charlottesville. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

172. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems' statements were designed to injure Mr. Gilmore's reputation, subject Mr. Gilmore to contempt and disgrace, and incite harassment and threats directed at Mr. Gilmore; indeed, Defendants Jones, InfoWars and Free Speech Systems' statements had their intended effect.

173. By publishing such statements, Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems did cause harm to Mr. Gilmore.
174. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems acted with actual malice. Their defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore's background and role in the Charlottesville protest and attack were made with knowledge of their falsehood or reckless disregard for their truth or falsity.
175. At a minimum, Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems' statements were negligent.
176. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems' statements are defamatory per se because they impute to Mr. Gilmore the commission of a criminal offense involving moral turpitude—in this instance that Mr. Gilmore, as a CIA operative, planned or participated in James Alex Fields, Jr.'s car attack in Charlottesville on August 12, 2017, which killed one person and injured many others. If true, these allegations would cause Mr. Gilmore to be indicted and punished. Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems' statements also prejudice Mr. Gilmore in his profession as a Foreign Service Officer at the United States State Department.
177. At the time the defamatory statements were made, Defendant Jones was an employee and/or agent of Defendants Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems.
178. Defendant Jones was acting within the scope of his employment and/or agency for Defendants Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems when he made defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore that appeared in the video, “Breaking: State Department/CIA Orchestrated Charlottesville Tragedy.”

179. Defendants Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems participated in, produced, and ratified Defendant Jones’s conduct.
180. Defendants Infowars, and/or Free Speech Systems are legally responsible for the acts of their employees, agents, or servants, pursuant to the doctrine of respondeat superior.
181. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants Jones, InfoWars, and Free Speech Systems’ false statements, Mr. Gilmore has suffered presumed damages as well as actual reputational, emotional, and professional injuries, and is liable for the harm he caused by defaming Mr. Gilmore in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT IX: DEFAMATION FOR STATEMENTS PUBLISHED IN AUGUST 19, 2017 ARTICLE ENTITLED “BOMBHELL: NEW EVIDENCE SUGGESTS CHARLOTTESVILLE WAS A COMPLETE SET-UP” (EXHIBIT H)
(Against Defendants Allen B. West and Derrick Wilburn)

182. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs to Count IX as if fully set forth herein.
183. The statements, written by Defendant Wilburn and published by Defendant West on the latter’s website on August 19, 2017, are of and concerning Mr. Gilmore.
184. Defendants West and Wilburn’s statements are false and defamatory:

“So the first man on the scene . . . just happened to be a State Department insider with a long history of involvement in psy-ops? If you think this isn’t fishy, how about this – since the Charlottesville protests and his appearance in the media, his information was suddenly removed from State Department websites. We need to clarify that these are early accounts and as yet unverified, but if true this is very, very serious stuff. It points directly to the reality of the “deep state” and more importantly to the lengths that the Soros/Clinton/Obama one-world government cabal will go in order to realize their desires for “fundamental transformation.”

The plain and natural meaning of this statement is that Mr. Gilmore, by virtue of his employment with the State Department, was involved in a conspiracy to incite violence in Charlottesville, resulting in the death of Heather Heyer, and the injury of countless others. This is false and defamatory as an assertion of fact and/or by implication.

185. Defendants West and Wilburn's statements were designed to injure Mr. Gilmore's reputation, subject Mr. Gilmore to contempt and disgrace, and incite harassment and threats directed at Mr. Gilmore; indeed, Defendants West and Wilburn's statements had their intended effect.
186. By publishing such statements, Defendants West and Wilburn did cause harm to Mr. Gilmore.
187. Defendants West and Wilburn acted with actual malice. Their defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore's background and role in the Charlottesville protest and attack were made with knowledge of their falsehood or reckless disregard for their truth or falsity. At a minimum, Defendants West and Wilburn's statements were negligent. Defendants West and Wilburn's statements are defamatory per se because they impute to Mr. Gilmore the commission of some criminal offense involving moral turpitude—in this instance, that Mr. Gilmore, as part of some "deep-state" conspiracy, participated in or planned James Alex Fields, Jr.'s car attack in Charlottesville on August 12, 2017, which killed one person and injured many others. If true, these allegations would cause Mr. Gilmore to be indicted and punished.
188. Defendants West and Wilburn's statements also prejudice Mr. Gilmore in his profession as a Foreign Service Officer at the United States State Department.

189. At the time the defamatory statements were made, Defendant Wilburn was an employee and/or agent of Defendant West.
190. Defendant Wilburn was acting within the scope of his employment and/or agency for Defendant West when he made defamatory statements about Mr. Gilmore that appeared in the article, “Bombshell: New Evidence Suggests Charlottesville Was a Complete Set-Up.”
191. Defendant West participated in, produced, and ratified Defendant Wilburn’s conduct.
192. Defendant West is legally responsible for the acts of his employees, agents, or servants, pursuant to the doctrine of respondeat superior.
193. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants West and Wilburn’s false statements, Mr. Gilmore has suffered presumed damages as well as actual reputational, emotional, and professional injuries, and is liable for the harm he caused by defaming Mr. Gilmore in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT X: INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS (Against All Defendants)

194. Mr. Gilmore re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs into Count X as if fully set forth herein.
195. Defendants knew or should have known that their publications about Mr. Gilmore would cause him to be the subject of harassment and threats and thereby cause severe emotional distress.
196. Defendants’ decision to publish baseless false allegations while reasonably foreseeing that their actions would cause severe emotional distress is outrageous and intolerable.
197. Mr. Gilmore has experienced serious and severe emotional distress as a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ actions. Defendants’ publication of baseless false allegations have caused Mr. Gilmore extensive personal suffering in the wake of the slew of threats and harassment that has been directed at him, as well as the irreparable damage to his professional reputation as a diplomat in the State Department and his ability to conduct business in his current company.

198. Defendants are liable to Mr. Gilmore for the emotional distress they caused in an amount greater than $75,000 to be determined at trial.

VI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Brennan Gilmore prays that this Court enter judgment in his favor and against all Defendants, and respectfully that this Court grant the following relief:

- A. An award of presumed and actual damages to compensate Mr. Gilmore for his reputational, emotional, and professional injuries, in an amount to be determined at trial;
- B. An award of damages to compensate Mr. Gilmore for his emotional distress, in an amount to be determined at trial;
- C. An award of punitive damages, in an amount to be determined at trial;
- D. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to the fullest extent permitted by law; and
- E. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just.

Charlottesville Attack, Brennan Gilmore and... the STOP KONY 2012 Pysop? What?

Posted on August 13, 2017 by willyloman
by Scott Creighton

UPDATE: Moon of Alabama blog makes some valid comparisons between this event and those that took place in Kiev during our color revolution (<http://www.moonofalabama.org/2017/08/charlottesville-what-you-wish-upon-others-you-wish-upon-yourself.html>).

(of course, those were REAL Nazis throwing fire bombs at the police as opposed to FAKE NAZIS, probably police provocateurs, whom the police didn't bother with and were given a stand-down order to stay out of the way till some good violence unfolded)

Go back and look at the video Brennan Gilmore posted of the Charlottesville attack. Go back and look at it. Something very odd and OBVIOUS is staring us in the face and all we have to do is step back and take a breath and see what's right there for us to see.

The numbers from the Charlottesville attack are in and one individual is dead with another 30 or so injured. Two more deaths are attributed to the event in an effort to make it bleed more so to speak, but they were killed when their helicopter crashed. I'm not sure how they link that to the protests, but, there you go.

I will do some research on the suspect and publish it a little later but right now I wanted to share with you some things I found out about Brennan Gilmore, the former State Department employee who just HAPPENED to be at the exact right place at the exact right time already filming with his camera to capture the entire event from beginning to end.

And he just HAPPENED to have the pre-approved establishment message canned and ready to go for a CNN interview on the scene. Funny, his video hadn't gone viral yet and CNN was already interviewing him? What a coincidence there, huh? Notice he says the counter-protesters were "peaceful". I guess that means Soros' ANTIFA provocateurs had been told to avoid that particular march. Also notice he equates "alt-right" with "terrorists" and "racists" with ease.

Excellent answer, Brennan Gilmore.

Brennan Gilmore's video is viral now. It's been hijacked by more YouTubers than you can imagine. It really was perfect. Not only did he HAPPEN to be at the right place at the right time, but he was ALREADY recording with his camera and it was focused on that car, for SOME REASON as it drove by the corner at a reasonable rate. Why he would focus on that vehicle right then and there BEFORE IT DID ANYTHING is a mystery to me. It was traveling down the street at about 25 miles and hour which is not out of place for that road. Certainly it may be for the situation, but remember, the march was not planned and or sanctioned, so the street was not blocked off, and in fact, there were two more cars in front of the Dodge Charger that were stuck in the middle of the protest on that same street. Those are the ones hit from behind by the Charger. But Brennan wasn't filming them was he? No. But he did film the Charger heading all the way down the street into the crowd of protesters... almost as if he knew it would run into them rather than simply brake and sit and wait like the other cars in front of it.

Brennan Gilmore
@brennanmgilmore

Video of car hitting anti-racist protestors. Let there be no confusion: this was deliberate terrorism. My prayers with victims. Stay home.

1:13 PM - Aug 12, 2017

100K 91.9K people are talking about this

Again, not a smoking gun in and of itself, but when combined with all the other coincidences surrounding his video PLUS the fact that he was ready to go with the divide and conquer establishment version of events for CNN while people were still lying on the hot pavement, it kind of makes you wonder doesn't it?

PLUS... Brennan says it is “definitely terrorism”... no doubt about it. HAS to be “terrorism”, right?

Let me take a second to explain something to you. Terrorism is an act of violence or the THREAT of violence designed to prompt a change in a country in terms of it’s economic, political or social structure.

How is ramming a car into a crowd of protesters you don’t like to be considered an effort by that ONE PERSON to bring about a change in this country’s social structure? Are we to assume the driver thought that running over a few counter protesters would make the rest of the country step back and say “yeah, the Robert E. Lee statue is history, not racism” and let it stand?

A terrorist blows up an airport because he wants to DISRUPT commerce and travel. A terrorist runs a campaign like GLADIO because he wants to prevent a nation from slipping too far to the left. A racist might run over “goddamned hippies” because he HATES THEM. But that’s NOT terrorism.

However... if the event, the mass casualty event, was PLANNED to destabilize the nation, to DIVIDE the “alt-left” and the “alt-right”... then THAT IS TERRORISM.

Moving on...

“The violence and hatred in our society is out of control. We like to think that it’s better than places like Africa and Asia, but it’s not,” said Mr. Gilmore, who worked in Africa as a U.S. State Department foreign service officer before leaving to manage the campaign of Tom Perriello for Virginia governor earlier this year. “I’m worried.” New York Times (<https://www.nytimes.com/2017/08/12/us/charlottesville-protest-white-nationalist.html>).

Given Brennan’s rather suspicious positioning before the fact and his former employer (a State Department that is wholly disgusted with BOTH Trump and Tillerson for firing a number of 7th floor entrenched State Department career “soft power” activists) I thought I would look him up and see if I could find some more background on who is really is and what he did for them.

This is what I found:

Brennan M. Gilmore | Embassy of the United States Bangui, CAR
(<http://bangui.usembassy.gov/about-us/deputy-chief/deputy-chief-of-mission.html>)

bangui.usembassy.gov/about-us/deputy-chief/deputy-chief-of-mission.html

Prior to this, Mr. Gilmore served as the Special Assistant for Lord’s Resistance Army (LRA) Issues in the Bureau of African Affairs, coordinating the development ...

The link is dead. They scrubbed it from the interwebs. But as you can probably imagine, when I saw he was linked somehow to the whole "STOP KONY 2012" psyop, I was amazed.

Then I found some more (not an easy thing to do mind you):

State/OIG recently posted its inspection report of the US Embassy in Bangui, a 15% danger pay post, as well as a 35% COLA and 35% hardship differential pay assignment (http://aoprals.state.gov/Web920/location_action.asp?MenuHide=1&CountryCode=1182). The inspection took place in Washington, DC, between September 10 and 28, 2012, and in Bangui, the Central African Republic, between November 5 and 12, 2012.

The diplomatic mission is headed by Ambassador Laurence D. Wohlers (<https://diplopundit.net/2010/07/05/officially-in-laurence-d-wohlers-to-bangui/>), a career diplomat. The deputy chief of mission (DCM) is Brennan M. Gilmore. The embassy temporarily suspended operations on December 28, 2012, as a result of the security situation in the country...

The Ambassador arrived in September 2010 and the deputy chief of mission (DCM) in July 2011. They constitute a team that is particularly strong in outreach and reporting and have successfully weathered a series of management challenges. They are not as successful when it comes to leadership and morale.

The DCM has broad executive responsibilities. He supervises the reporting agenda assigned to the first-tour political/economic/consular officer. The officer meets weekly with the DCM and usually the Ambassador as well. The DCM is responsible primarily for military affairs, which include the U.S. Special Forces deployment to the eastern Central African Republic and a rotational U.S. Africa Command liaison officer position. Diplopundit archive on Brennan Gilmore (<https://diplopundit.net/tag/brennan-m-gilmore/>).

The STOP KONY 2012 psyop was all about using the Joseph Kony boogieman to justify letting Barack Obama send Special Operations troops into Africa to run around and squash any and all resistance to our new imperialism campaign. It was a fraud. A show. And Brennan was part of it.

He was also part of the campaign of Tom Perriello's in Virginia to become the next governor. Perriello also has ties to the new African imperialism campaign that was waged under the watchful eyes of our first black president. Tom lost the primary two months ago in spite of the fact that he was backed by every establishment unDemocratic Party leader and even that Khan guy who (<https://twitter.com/brennanmgilmore/status/874425567977844737>) was rolled out by Hillary Clinton to paint Trump as a racist way back when.

In July 2015, President Obama appointed Tom Perriello to succeed former US Senator Russell Feingold as Special Envoy to the Great Lakes Region and the Democratic Republic of Congo. As Special Envoy, Perriello was the US representative to a region including Democratic Republic of Congo, Burundi, and Rwanda, countries working to overcome a recent legacy of civil war and genocide.

In December 2016, Perriello indicated that he would run for Governor of Virginia (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Governor_of_Virginia) in the 2017 election (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Virginia_gubernatorial_election,_2017) on a platform centered around economic justice as well as resistance to the Trump Administration (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Presidency_of_Donald_Trump).^[51] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tom_Perriello#cite_note-51).

Perriello is currently CEO of Win Virginia a PAC dedicated to helping Democrats win back the Virginia House of Delegates in 2017.

And there's one more thing about the man Brennan Gilmore tried to make the next governor of Virginia... he's a centrist neoliberal linked to the CIA's USAID (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tom_Perriello#Special_Envoy_to_the_Great_Lakes_Region_and_the_Democratic_Republic_of_Congo).

During the 2009 legislative session, Perriello voted for the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/American_Recovery_and_Reinvestment_Act_of_2009),^[31] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tom_Perriello#cite_note-rc46-31) (he voted for TARP) the American Clean Energy and Security Act (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/American_Clean_Energy_and_Security_Act),^[32] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tom_Perriello#cite_note-rc477-32) and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Patient_Protection_and_Affordable_Care_Act) in March 2010.^[33] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tom_Perriello#cite_note-33). During debate over the health care bill in the House, he voted for the Stupak–Pitts Amendment (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Stupak%E2%80%93Pitts_Amendment) to the Affordable Health Care for America Act (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Affordable_Health_Care_for_America_Act), which would have prohibited the use of federal funds to cover any part of the costs of any health plan that includes coverage of abortion (and he voted for fascist ObamaCare but didn't want abortion to be paid for under it)...

Tom Perriello was selected by Secretary of State John Kerry to lead the 2015 Quadrennial Diplomacy & Development Review, a strategic planning process intended to be conducted every four years for the U.S. Department of State (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/U.S._Department_of_State) and the U.S. Agency for International Development (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/U.S._Agency_for_International_Development) (USAID)...

He has worked as a consultant to the International Center for Transitional Justice (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/International_Center_for_Transitional_Justice) in Kosovo (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kosovo>) (2003), Darfur (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Darfur>) (2005), and Afghanistan (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Afghanistan>) (2007) where he worked on justice-based security strategies.^[13] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tom_Perriello#cite_note-c-ville-13). Perriello has also been a fellow at The Century Foundation (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Century_Foundation).

Ah, so Tom worked mopping up resistance in places like Kosovo, Darfur and Afghanistan before becoming such a stalwart “progressive” huh?

And what's that about The Century Foundation? Who are they you ask?

The Century Foundation is a progressive think tank (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Think_tank) headquartered in New York City (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/New_York_City) with an office in Washington, D.C. (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Washington,_D.C).^[1] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Century_Foundation#cite_note-1). It was founded as a nonprofit (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/501%28c%29%283%29>) public policy research institution on the belief that the prosperity and security of the United States depends on a mix of effective government, open democracy, and free markets

Ah, the Global Free Market Wars, a.k.a. the Global War on Terrorism a.k.a. Overseas Contingency Operations. And Tom, and apparently our “convenient witness” Brennan Gilmore, were all over it.

Gilmore has spent a lot of time Tweeting since the event unfolded yesterday. As expected, he is quick to label it terrorism and cast blame on the “alt-right” which he equates with Nazism (<https://twitter.com/brennanmgilmore/status/896464509262548992>).

It’s important to put into context Brennan Gilmore’s time in CAR when they were fighting “KONY”

They weren’t fighting KONY. He was there in support of the brutal military dictatorship of General François Bozizé (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fran%C3%A7ois_Boziz%C3%A9) who took over in coup from the elected president of the country, Ange-Félix Patassé (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ange-F%C3%A9lix_Patass%C3%A9).

Our puppet dictator Bozize was trying to hold onto power in the face of a 2012 uprising from Séléka CPSK-CPJP-UFDR (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/S%C3%A9l%C3%A9ka_CPSK-CPJP-UFDR), not “KONY”. But of course, that would have been a harder sell to the fans of President Peace Prize so “KONY” the boogieman. In the end, Special Operations and all the propaganda we could muster did little to stem the tide of CHANGE in CAR and the start of 2013 saw folks like Brennan Gilmore and Bozize flee the country.

Gilmore has said on multiple occasions since the event yesterday that you would think hatred and violence is more widespread in “African nations” than it is right here in the states, but “you would be wrong” which is quite an amazing statement coming from a man who resided in a country that routinely killed opposition leaders and who was forced to FLEE THE COUNTRY when the people finally took it back from us.

All this being said, is it possible this man with links to Special Ops and CIA and various other black ops kinds of actors just HAPPENED to be there at that particular moment in history?

Yeah, I guess that’s possible, if you’re into coincidence theories I suppose.

But I’m not into such things.

Clearly the State Department has a lot of disgruntled former employees who would delight in destabilizing Trump’s tenure even more than they already have. And Gilmore, like Tom, seem particularly invested in undermining the “alt-right” in the lead-up to the next round of elections.

Waaaaaay too much coincidence for me folks. Waaaaaay too much.

re the car crash: the really strange part wasn't that gilmore's camera followed the car, it was that he chose to pan away from the car after it crashed into a crowd of people.

also, i couldn't help but think of recent terror events in europe where a vehicle was used as a weapon. i guess we're supposed to equate the threat from trump/alt-right as being as dire as the threat of radical islam?

i don't think that car was supposed to come back up the street. they couldn't foresee cars stopped in the middle of the crowd and the driver couldn't see them stopped there due to all the people walking in front of them. When he hit the car, he hit it hard enough to launch it into the one in front of it, then the driver panicked and hit reverse. I think, if the videographer was part of the operation, he was as shocked to see the car coming back up the street as the driver was and probably didn't want to risk recording the driver's face had the window been busted.

the vid cuts away from the car almost as soon as it crashes into the crowd, which i thought was weird; i know if i captured something like that on camera, i'd keep the camera on the car & probably try to get a closer pic of the car, rather than turn the camera around to film a handful of people away from the crash.

No think tank claiming to believe in a “free market” can call itself progressive. The ‘free’ market doesn’t exist; further, the consequence of unfettered trade is a huge outflux of cash from this country and a lot less money flowing into the economy, since it’s offshored or in some fatcats’ bank accounts. Neoliberalism is just Reaganism hiding in sheep’s clothes.

Before you guys go crazy making connections. We are talking about Charlottesville, VA. Langley is just a couple of hours away. The feds love recruiting from UVA. As a person that lives in Northern Virginia it's not surprising in the least to see a former agent taking this video. He makes no secret about it in his politico article- infact he makes some interesting comparisons to situation dealt with in Africa. If anything we owe him a great deal for his ability to stay calm and articulate during a hostile situation. We are all better informed because of it.

It would appear from the videos I watched that the shot of the car driving relatively sedately before the “mayhem” has been placed into the “presentations” later on, so that one can't actually work out the sequence of events. There were obviously multiple camera-people & a guy from Twitter (linked to above) has what may well be pertinent to understanding WTF happened. Someone else did a Twitter search on the hash-tag # False Flag . . . (where I picked up Ariosopher from) – there's are certainly shit loads of people calling “bullshit” on the MSM version of events !!

We watch with interest.

Charlottesville Attack, Brennan Gilmore and... the Stop Kony 2012 PYSOP? What?

Sunday, August 13, 2017 4:25

Headline: Bitcoin & Blockchain Searches Exceed Trump! Blockchain Stocks Are Next!

by Scott Creighton

Go back and look at the video Brennan Gilmore posted of the Charlottesville attack. Go back and look at it. Something very odd and OBVIOUS is staring us in the face and all we have to do is step back and take a breath and see what's right there for us to see.

The numbers from the Charlottesville attack are in and one individual is dead with another 30 or so injured. Two more deaths are attributed to the event in an effort to make it bleed more so to speak, but they were killed when their helicopter crashed. I'm not sure how they link that to the protests, but, there you go.

I will do some research on the suspect and publish it a little later but right now I wanted to share with you some things I found out about Brennan Gilmore, the former State Department employee who just HAPPENED to be at the exact right place at the exact right time already filming with his camera to capture the entire event from beginning to end.

And he just HAPPENED to have the pre-approved establishment message canned and ready to go for a CNN interview on the scene. Funny, his video hadn't gone viral yet and CNN was already interviewing him? What a coincidence

— Minor Leaguer (@Minor_Leaguer) August 12, 2017

Brennan Gilmore’s video is viral now. It’s been hijacked by more YouTubers than you can imagine. It really was perfect. Not only did he HAPPEN to be at the right place at the right time, but he was ALREADY recording with his camera and it was focused on that car, for SOME REASON as it drove by the corner at a reasonable rate. Why he would focus on that vehicle right then and there BEFORE IT DID ANYTHING is a mystery to me. It was traveling down the street at about 25 miles and hour which is not out of place for that road. Certainly it may be for the situation, but remember, the march was not planned and or sanctioned, so the street was not blocked off, and in fact, there were two more cars in front of the Dodge Charger that were stuck in the middle of the protest on that same street. Those are the ones hit from behind by the Charger. But Brennan wasn’t filming them was he? No. But he did film the Charger heading all the way down the street into the crowd of protesters... almost as if he knew it would run into them rather than simply brake and sit and wait like the other cars in front of it.

Video of car hitting anti-racist protestors. Let there be no confusion: this was deliberate terrorism. My prayers with victims. Stay home. pic.twitter.com/MUOZs71Pf4

— Brennan Gilmore (@brennanmgilmore) August 12, 2017

Again, not a smoking gun in and of itself, but when combined with all the other coincidences surrounding his video PLUS the fact that he was ready to go with the divide and conquer establishment version of events for CNN while people were still lying on the hot pavement, it kind of makes you wonder doesn’t it?

PLUS... Brennan says it is “definitely terrorism”... no doubt about it. HAS to be “terrorism”, right?

Let me take a second to explain something to you. Terrorism is an act of violence or the THREAT of violence designed to prompt a change in a country in terms of it’s economic, political or social structure.

How is ramming a car into a crowd of protesters you don’t like to be considered an effort by that ONE PERSON to bring about a change in this country’s social structure? Are we to assume the driver thought that running over a few counter protesters would make the rest of the country step back and say “yeah, the Robert E. Lee statue is history, not racism” and let it stand?

Given Brennan’s rather suspicious positioning before the fact and his former employer (a State Department that is wholly disgusted with BOTH Trump and Tillerson for firing a number of 7th floor entrenched State Department career “soft power” activists) I thought I would look him up and see if I could find some more background on who is really is and what he did for them.

The STOP KONY 2012 psyop was all about using the Joseph Kony boogiemane to justify letting Barack Obama send Special Operations troops into Africa to run around and squash any and all resistance to our new imperialism campaign. It was a fraud. A show. And Brennan was part of it.

He was also part of the campaign of Tom Perriello's in Virginia to become the next governor. Perriello also has ties to the new African imperialism campaign that was waged under the watchful eyes of our first black president. Tom lost the primary two months ago in spite of the fact that he was backed by every establishment unDemocratic Party leader and even that Khan guy who was rolled out by Hillary Clinton to paint Trump as a racist way back when.

In July 2015, President Obama appointed Tom Perriello to succeed former US Senator Russell Feingold as Special Envoy to the Great Lakes Region and the Democratic Republic of Congo. As Special Envoy, Perriello was the US representative to a region including Democratic Republic of Congo, Burundi, and Rwanda, countries working to overcome a recent legacy of civil war and genocide.

In December 2016, Perriello indicated that he would run for Governor of Virginia in the 2017 election on a platform centered around economic justice as well as resistance to the Trump Administration.^[51]

Perriello is currently CEO of Win Virginia a PAC dedicated to helping Democrats win back the Virginia House of Delegates in 2017.

And there's one more thing about the man Brennan Gilmore tried to make the next governor of Virginia... he's a centrist neoliberal linked to the CIA's USAID.

During the 2009 legislative session, Perriello voted for the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act,^[31] (he voted for TARP) the American Clean Energy and Security Act,^[32] and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act in March 2010.^[33] During debate over the health care bill in the House, he voted for the Stupak-Pitts Amendment to the Affordable Health Care for America Act, which would have prohibited the use of federal funds to cover any part of the costs of any health plan that includes coverage of abortion (and he voted for fascist ObamaCare but didn't want abortion to be paid for under it)...

Tom Perriello was selected by Secretary of State John Kerry to lead the 2015 Quadrennial Diplomacy & Development Review, a strategic planning process intended to be conducted every four years for the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)...

He has worked as a consultant to the International Center for Transitional Justice in Kosovo (2003), Darfur (2005), and Afghanistan (2007) where he worked on justice-based security strategies.^[13] Perriello has also been a fellow at The Century Foundation

Ah, so Tom worked mopping up resistance in places like Kosovo, Darfur and Afghanistan before becoming such a stalwart "progressive" huh?

OMG congrats on making the first post that Charlottesville protest is a fake plot!

Terrorism is to incite terror. You can do that without the Bombs. That is also what the KKK is doing perfectly. And they are a domestic terror group.

Seriously, if you have a group consisting of the KKK, NEO-Nazi's and white supremacist supporting the Robert Edward Lee Sculpture because it is part of Confederate Culture, you really need to think really hard why these groups are defending it.

Seriously, If i was a Alt-righter and you Have the KKK, Neo-Nazi's and white supremacists defending you. I would really think hard what my political ideology is about. Because if you don't support these groups. You should speak out or you are with them.

Similar to those Muslims who don't condemn Islamic terrorists.

If you have a grain of decency you should be doing that as well.

The American Vanguard has a Nazi reference as their website Link. Blood and soil was used as a slogan in Nazi germany.

You don't need to get paid to understand this common sense

Rockledge

When hate-mongering crybaby racists like Sharpton and Jesse whatshisname have their public whine events, you don't see white people interfering.

I am not for white supremacists (although it isn't hard to see that given the condition our society has become pretty much is a recruitment commercial for them) but I am also not for limiting constitutional rights, and the klan and supremacists have just as much right to peaceful assembly and to celebrate AMERICAN culture as the brainwashed herd that hate this country and are trying to take it over.

It appears to me that what has really happened is a group of law abiding citizens got together to enjoy their constitutional right of assembly and were harassed by those who hate AMERICA and want us to keep just being america, the has been nation.

I am thinking a LOT of AMERICANS are sick and tired of all the crybaby dependent mentality bullshit and likely see through the medias corrupt misrepresentation of reality.

it is not american culture when you have people openly chanting racist slogans and doing nazi references on the street

This is like syaing that ISIS should be allowed to do an assembly and shout allah ackbar on the street.

Charlottesville, Brennan Gilmore, and the STOP KONY 2012 Psyop

Go back and look at the video Brennan Gilmore posted of the Charlottesville attack. Go back and look at it. Something very odd and OBVIOUS is staring us in the face and all we have to do is step back and take a breath and see what's right there for us to see.

The numbers from the Charlottesville attack are in and one individual is dead with another 30 or so injured. Two more deaths are attributed to the event in an effort to make it bleed more so to speak, but they were killed when their helicopter crashed. I'm not sure how they link that to the protests, but, there you go.

I will do some research on the suspect and publish it a little later but right now I wanted to share with you some things I found out about Brennan Gilmore, the former State Department employee who just HAPPENED to be at the exact right place at the exact right time already filming with his camera to capture the entire event from beginning to end.

And he just HAPPENED to have the pre-approved establishment message canned and ready to go for a CNN interview on the scene. Funny, his video hadn't gone viral yet and CNN was already interviewing him? What a coincidence there, huh? Notice he says the counter-protesters were "peaceful". I guess that means Soros' ANTIFA provocateurs had been told to avoid that particular march. Also notice he equates "alt-right" with "terrorists" and "racists" with ease.

Brennan Gilmore's video is viral now. It's been hijacked by more YouTubers than you can imagine. It really was perfect. Not only did he HAPPEN to be at the right place at the right time, but he was ALREADY recording with his camera and it was focused on that car, for SOME REASON as it drove by the corner at a reasonable rate. Why he would focus on that vehicle right then and there BEFORE IT DID ANYTHING is a mystery to me. It was traveling down the street at about 25 miles and hour which is not out of place for that road. Certainly it may be for the situation, but remember, the march was not planned and or sanctioned, so the street was not blocked off, and in fact, there were two more cars in front of the Dodge Charger that were stuck in the middle of the protest on that same street. Those are the ones hit from behind by the Charger. But Brennan wasn't filming them was he? No. But he did film the Charger heading all the way down the street into the crowd of protesters... almost as if he knew it would run into them rather than simply brake and sit and wait like the other cars in front of it.

Again, not a smoking gun in and of itself, but when combined with all the other coincidences surrounding his video PLUS the fact that he was ready to go with the divide and conquer establishment version of events for CNN while people were still lying on the hot pavement, it kind of makes you wonder doesn't it?

PLUS... Brennan says it is "definitely terrorism"... no doubt about it. HAS to be "terrorism", right?

Let me take a second to explain something to you. Terrorism is an act of violence or the THREAT of violence designed to prompt a change in a country in terms of it's economic, political or social structure.

How is ramming a car into a crowd of protesters you don't like to be considered an effort by that ONE PERSON to bring about a change in this country's social structure? Are we to assume the driver thought that running over a few counter protesters would make the rest of the country step back and say "yeah, the Robert E. Lee statue is history, not racism" and let it stand?

A terrorist blows up an airport because he wants to DISRUPT commerce and travel. A terrorist runs a campaign like GLADIO because he wants to prevent a nation from slipping too far to the left. A racist might run over "goddamned hippies" because he HATES THEM. But that's NOT terrorism.

However... if the event, the mass casualty event, was PLANNED to destabilize the nation, to DIVIDE the "alt-left" and the "alt-right"... then THAT IS TERRORISM.

Moving on...

"The violence and hatred in our society is out of control. We like to think that it's better than places like Africa and Asia, but it's not," said Mr. Gilmore, who worked in Africa as a U.S. State Department foreign service officer before leaving to manage the campaign of Tom Perriello for Virginia governor earlier this year. "I'm worried." New York Times

Given Brennan's rather suspicious positioning before the fact and his former employer (a State Department that is wholly disgusted with BOTH Trump and Tillerson for firing a number of 7th floor entrenched State Department career "soft power" activists) I thought I would look him up and see if I could find some more background on who is really is and what he did for them.

This is what I found:

Ah, so Tom worked mopping up resistance in places like Kosovo, Darfur and Afghanistan before becoming such a stalwart "progressive" huh?

The Century Foundation is a progressive think tank headquartered in New York City with an office in Washington, D.C.^[1] It was founded as a nonprofit public policy research institution on the belief that the prosperity and security of the United States depends on a mix of effective government, open democracy, and free markets

Ah, the Global Free Market Wars, a.k.a. the Global War on Terrorism a.k.a. Overseas Contingency Operations. And Tom, and apparently our "convenient witness" Brennan Gilmore, were all over it.

Gilmore has spent a lot of time Tweeting since the event unfolded yesterday. As expected, he is quick to label it terrorism and cast blame on the "alt-right" which he equates with Nazism.

It's important to put into context Brennan Gilmore's time in CAR when they were fighting "KONY"

They weren't fighting KONY. He was there in support of the brutal military dictatorship of General François Bozizé who took over in coup from the elected president of the country, Ange-Félix Patassé

Our puppet dictator Bozize was trying to hold onto power in the face of a 2012 uprising from Séléka CPSK-CPJP-UFDR not "KONY". But of course, that would have been a harder sell to the fans of President Peace Prize so "KONY" the boogiemani. In the end, Special Operations and all the propaganda we could muster did little to stem the tide of CHANGE in CAR and the start of 2013 saw folks like Brennan Gilmore and Bozize flee the country.

Gilmore has said on multiple occasions since the event yesterday that you would think hatred and violence is more widespread in "African nations" than it is right here in the states, but "you would be wrong" which is quite an amazing statement coming from a man who resided in a country that routinely killed opposition leaders and who was forced to FLEE THE COUNTRY when the people finally took it back from us.

All this being said, is it possible this man with links to Special Ops and CIA and various other black ops kinds of actors just HAPPENED to be there at that particular moment in history?

Yeah, I guess that's possible, if you're into coincidence theories I suppose.

But I'm not into such things.

Clearly the State Department has a lot of disgruntled former employees who would delight in destabilizing Trump's tenure even more than they already have. And Gilmore, like Tom, seem particularly invested in undermining the "alt-right" in the lead-up to the next round of elections.

Waaaaaay too much coincidence for me folks. Waaaaaay too much.

UPDATE: Moon of Alabama blog makes some valid comparisons between this event and those that took place in Kiev during our color revolution

(of course, those were REAL Nazis throwing fire bombs at the police as opposed to FAKE NAZIS, probably police provocateurs, whom the police didn't bother with and were given a stand-down order to stay out of the way till some good violence unfolded)

The random Charlottesville observer who was interviewed by MSNBC and liberal outlets turns out to be a deep state shill with links to George Soros.

It looks like the State Department was involved in Charlottesville rioting and is trying to cover it up.

But after Deep State got caught they are trying to erase this guy from their records.

Tom Perriello is announcing additional hires for his gubernatorial campaign that represent talent from across the Democratic Party and with deep Virginia ties uniting behind Tom's new-generation progressive candidacy.

Julia Barnes, a veteran of Bernie Sanders' presidential campaign who led his successful 22-point upset primary victory in New Hampshire, will serve as campaign manager. Pete Brodnitz, a veteran of Virginia Democratic campaigns and former advisor to Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign, will lead opinion and strategic research as a strategist and pollster. Angelique Cannon-Harris, one of the longest-serving finance aides on Clinton's presidential campaign and a former top finance aide to Senator Mark Warner, will be a senior advisor, leading the campaign's finance strategy.

Additionally, Tom has boosted his digital operation by bringing on Revolution Messaging, a firm founded by alumni of President Obama's 2008 campaign which most recently served as the digital consultant for Bernie Sanders' presidential campaign. Revolution Messaging will lead the campaign's digital and online fundraising strategies. The campaign previously announced it had hired Ian Sams, another longtime communications operative for Clinton's presidential campaign, to lead its communications and messaging operation as communications director.

"This team represents the broad, diverse cross-section of Democrats uniting behind Tom's next-generation progressive candidacy in Virginia," said Julia Barnes. "We are excited to get to work to tell Tom's story across Virginia, helping to build a strong coalition of voters committed to showing Virginia is progressive, inclusive, and a firewall against hate in 2017."

Additional hires include Brennan Gilmore as chief of staff. Don Mark as deputy campaign manager, Jessica Aune as finance director, Leah Greenberg as policy director, Kimble Reynolds as senior advisor for political affairs, Quena Dailey as deputy political director, Remi Yamamoto as press secretary, and Maggie Thornton as scheduler.

Brennan Gilmore isn't just a State Department asset

He's been the Chief of Staff for Tom Perriello will lead strategic research for the campaign. Pete was a part of the Democratic Strategy Group joining team that advised Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign during the Democratic primary before launching his own firm, Expedition Strategies. Pete's previous Virginia clients include Senator Tim Kaine, former Senator Jim Webb and former Congressman Rick Boucher.

Senior Advisor – Angelique Cannon-Harris

Angelique will advise Tom on finance strategy. She most recently served as interim national finance director of the Democratic National Committee, after being one of Hillary Clinton's longest-serving finance aides on her presidential campaign, where she was deputy national finance director for the mid-Atlantic region. Before joining Clinton's campaign in early 2015, she was the finance director at the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee in the 2012 and 2014 cycles and was previously the top finance aide to Senator Mark Warner.

Chief of Staff – Brennan Gilmore

A Lexington, Va., native and UVA graduate, Brennan will serve as the campaign's chief of staff, advising Tom on strategy and planning. A career Foreign Service Officer, Brennan previously served in diplomatic posts across Africa and in the State Department in Washington, before being Tom's top aide as U.S. Envoy to the African Great Lakes Region. He is also an accomplished bluegrass musician.

Deputy Campaign Manager and Political Director – Don Mark

A longtime Democratic operative in Virginia and native of Prince William County, Don will lead the campaign's political outreach. Prior to the campaign, Don was deputy chief of staff to Mayor Dwight Jones of Richmond. He was the political director for President Obama's winning 2012 campaign in Virginia, as well as the political director for the Democratic Party of Virginia.

Communications Director – Ian Sams

Ian will lead communications and message strategy for Tom for Virginia. He was one of the earliest communications hires on Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign in Brooklyn, most recently serving as the regional communications director leading the campaign's communications strategy in five battleground states, including Virginia. Prior to joining Clinton's campaign in early 2015, he was a spokesman for the Democratic National Committee, where he was deployed to Terry McAuliffe's 2013 gubernatorial campaign for its final months, and for U.S. Senator Tom Carper of Delaware.

Brennan's FSO credentials that the State Department is trying to hide are reasserted here.

Is the State Department operating within American borders?

Democrat Tom Perriello's fundraising haul of $2.2 million in the first three months of 2017, the highest among all candidates in Virginia's governor's race, was powered in part by several six-figure checks from outside the state, including $385,000 from billionaire investor George Soros and his sons and $200,000 from a New York-based nonprofit Perriello co-founded a decade ago.

Perriello, a former congressman and diplomat who shocked Virginia's Democratic establishment by jumping into the governor's race in January, raised more than Lt. Gov. Ralph S. Northam, his Democratic primary rival who took in $1.4 million between January and March, and Republican frontrunner Ed Gillespie, who raised nearly $1.9 million over the same period, according to reports that were due to the state Monday and compiled by the nonpartisan Virginia Public Access Project.

A former chairman of the Republican National Committee who more recently worked as a political consultant, Gillespie's fundraising remained far ahead of his two rivals for the GOP.

So the former Chief of Staff for Tom Perriello who ran in the Virginia gubernatorial election and whose campaign received a ridiculous amount of "dark money", including $380k from George Soros...

... also happened to go viral and was interviewed because he just happened to be close to the Charlottesville event....

... and also managed to have all information about him removed from both New York Times and the State Departments hours after the event...

This weekend Brennan Gilmore happened to be in Charlottesville with the rioters. The media knows exactly who he is yet played it off like a casual observer.

This is how the Deep State is working with the liberal media to shape narrative and fool the American people.

Truthfully, I am at a loss for words, this morning, after reading this article! There is a "bipartisan call" for Capitol Hill hearings on what happened in Charlottesville, VA. Why bother? The cover up will be massive, and we all know that the white supremacists will get all of the blame. Antifa, BLM, The State Department, etc. will not even be a footnote. Good Lord, our President is surrounded by traitors. Our country is in deep trouble, and now it's palpable!

It's called stop paying your taxes. If you

End this nonsense by peacefully resisting

BOMBSHELL CONNECTION BETWEEN CHARLOTTESVILLE, SOROS, CIA

Nazi collaborator Soros funding division in America just like Ukraine

Bombshell Connection Between Charlottesville, Soros, CIA

As demonstrated this weekend, a civil war is brewing in this country, laying the foundation for a violent coup to take out Trump.

Soros-funded NGO's have been able to achieve regime change in other countries by quite literally teaming up with Neo-nazis and "moderate" terrorists.

Now, investigative reporter Lee Stranahan reveals the same players involved in the Ukraine overthrow are working behind the scenes to oust President Trump.

Good info. Merkel received the Kalergi Award in 2010.

Kalergi Plan to flood Europe with non-Europeans to create a mixed race that is easily controllable by elites. Rothschilds funded the Kalergi Plan about 100 years ago and the EU was planned just as the North American Union is planned.

And if that isn't enough: Soros donated $33 million dollars to help local activists ferment racial division in Ferguson, Missouri, an action that transformed “a one day criminal event into a 24-hour -a- day national cause celebre. Soro's Open Society Foundation recently gave $10 million to “confront hate” in the U.S. plus another $500 million for “migrants, refugees and host communities.” More hate and division is the goal.

Soros believes the United States should become subservient to global rules, including the false global warming/carbon paradigm. He has also invested in Monsanto and a lab in Sierra Leone that created a CDC patented Ebola strain. NWO in full swing. The problem is you have at least 60% of the country watching this unfold that is not going to remain idle much longer. Less than 1% that believe rioting and looting is acceptable and 30% that will just remain neutral. What I'm curious to is this. Have the Soros Puppets actually done the MATH? The second some soccer mom is on her way home with her kids and some protestor road blockade ends up hurting them freeway bowling will become a sport . And the other 30% that was neutral will now become the Hunters. Trump isn't going to invoke martial law, he is going to let this problem sort itself out and I guarantee the people that voted for this countries future will come out on top.

The Charlottesville terrorist attack car, 2010 Dodge Challenger, license in the photos is Ohio GVF1111. The car registered with that # is to James Alex Fields, Jr, 20, and it had a sun/moon roof, but the attack car did not. And Fields was not driving it. The driver as seen through the windshield looks like James G Field, 32, US infantry Veteran. In the crash at least the driver's airbag should have deployed, but it didn't. Therefore, that car had to have been specially prepared for Veteran Field, with a fake license plate for kid Fields.

Then the cops allowed Vet. Field to slip away – because he was working for the deep state, and they blamed and arrested kid Fields - a perfect lone-wolf patsy. See 82 221 129 208/baaaasepaagec9.html

With Jason Kessler and Mayor Michael Singer having “played their roles” in creating this media spectacle, this report says, third up was Brennan Gilmore—who “magically and mystically” was able to appear at the height of this created mob violence with a video camera in hand to record a pro-fascist supporter ramming his car into a crowd of communists agitators—with Brennan Gilmore, afterwards, being prominently interviewed by not only CNN, but every other anti-Trump “fake news” media outlet in America too—and whose statements were, obviously, pre-planned.

Ever since the Democratic's (40 year) Dream to allow millions and millions of poor and uneducated illegals from Latin America into the US to get Hillary elected and then give those illegals amnesty to vote for them (to replace their aging and incarcerated Black voting block) went up in smoke with President Trump's election, the Democrats now realize that they have to double down on the Black voters to have any chance of winning. This is why Charlottesville was a set up by the governor of Virginia to "gin" up the black vote for the 2017 Governor's race in Virginia this year. It is so obvious. I hope the Republican wins there.

You right and this problem is happening not only in the US but in all stabilized nations inclusive in Brazil. In fact anybody here bear this anymore only the zumbis lefts in the universities. At least Trump can put out a public warning to us the targets at these staged but violent protests. To steer clear. Soros has been exposed.....and yet nothing happens to him. He has been exposed as the money man who has tried to undermine countries around the world, including the USA, for his own profit. He is a citizen of the US and so why is it that he has not been arrested? Israel wants him, Russia wants him and even Hungary wants him to stand trial for his criminal activities.

We know about the Clinton Foundation.....why is it that Hillary, Bill and Chelsea have not been arrested for their criminal activities?

I am sure the the Justice Department knows about all this criminality. It is time to do something about it. Our country is being undermined by these treasonous scum and something needs to be

neil sutherland • 7 months ago

First, the five key actors in this staged event are George soros/Shultz, Hillary rodham/Clinton, barak/barry plants. The leader of the fake right group, the leader of the fake left group [both demographics are victims of elite pedophile, neither 'supreme' nor lives matter], the mayor and governor who ordered police to foment violence, the driver of the 'death' 'terrorist' car, and the innocent bystander who happened to be walking by to film and upload and be first interviewed, are all George soros/Shultz, Hillary rodham/Clinton, barak/barry plants .

Second, this false flag, fake news, is not an isolated event meant to attack trump. One of the key elements of propaganda, is repetition. The theme of this particular treasonous action, has three aims: to scare americans, to divide americans, and to make americans ashamed of their clown/joker com-'patriots'.

Just pause for a moment, and think. If the CIA did do all that, and has the power to do so, don't you think that they also would have the power to have a prevented a Trump presidency. Or even more simple, don't you think that they would shut down InfoWars, or that Alex Jones would suddenly get a deadly disease because he spreads all those "secrets" and hidden "agendas"? (Like in russia, where people who try to fight the "deep state" or "hidden state" suddenly disappear, die, or get killed...

That's taking it a bit to far,,,,no one expected that the people would vote Trump in..As for the rest,,Plenty of people have "suddenly died" here in the USA,,,they got the Hillary treatment. Now you have to know that the so called deep state members include many traitor democrats and the Clintons are the very face of the deep state in action.

^ | v • Share ›

aj1575 → PA George • 6 months ago

Oh well, I thought Obama was running the deep state after Trump took over from him. But you sure got reliable sources that prove that it is run by the Clintons.

(Actually the deep state is run by big money, rich people and companies are paying the people who make laws (senate congress). Without big money, nobody gets elected, and once elected, they pay it back with laws that help the rich and the companies, and not people like you and me.)

Seth Rich died because HE was the leak. The demonic rats are as corrupt as the GOP....Gay Old Pedophiles. The political system in this country is controlled. ^ | v • Share ›

aj1575 → Steve smith • 6 months ago

Yeah, Trump is running against the system, but he has no alternate plan; the plan is simply to be against.

Of course you will not understand this.....it is too logical and you have Trumo derangement syndrome brought on by watching the corporate owned ENEMEDIA which is in a panic because most of the owners and many of the ENEMEDIA itself are involved in pedophilia and so they are stuffing your empty head with made up nonsense.

The country was started by less than 3% who were willing. The country will be saved by the millions who voted for PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP.

He got rid of TPP.....He is getting us out of NAFTA.....He is cutting regulations so that business can thrive.....He is showing the ENEMEDIA for the Anti American communist sympathizers that they are.....He has given a whole lot of people hope that the USA will not become part of the plans for globalization. He through his justice department is going after the pedophiles. His justice department is going after criminal politicians like Debbie Wasserman Schultz....Hillary and Bill Clinton.....Barack Obama.....and many more...He has accomplished more positive things in his first 8 months than Obama was able to bring about failure in his first 8 months. We as the USA were able to just barely survive Obama.....Trump is making progress in getting rid of Obamaism.

He is doing what I and many millions more voted for him to do.....He is going to build the wall.....he is going to LOCK HER UP.....he is in the process of MAKING AMERICA GREAT AGAIN.....

But I guess you are not for any of that.....so sad that you are so negative.

Sorry for the late answer,

TPP is a two sided sword, the upside may be some benefits for Jobs at home, on the downside, it gives China to opportunity to strengthen its position on the pacific rim. The country with the better economic relationships, also influences the politics (and this could be China now). Nothing happened to NAFTA so far, so can not book for Trump. Cutting regulations has also two sides, it makes it easier to do business, but it makes it also easier for them to damage the enviornment, and the health of its workers.

The wall is still in doubt (and I personally think, not much will be built in the next 4 years. He is definitely not going to look Hillary up (and neither Obama).

We can have a talk in two years again, and see what happened (tax reform, Obama care repeal, infrastructure bill...)

^ | v • Share ›

Steve smith ➔ aj1575 • 6 months ago

TPP is a one way highway. It made the US a poor competitor and shackled us with all kinds of nonsense.

It is not up to Trump to lock up these criminals....it will be up to Jeff Sessions and the congress. Jeff Sessions already has the support of the demoncrats since Trump made it seem that he wanted him gone. Now that Sessions has demoncrat support thanks to Trump attacks.....Sessions will go after them.....he has to as there will be a civil war if he does not.

^ | v • Share ›

aj1575 ➔ Steve smith • 6 months ago

— | 🇺🇸

Dream on, Session will never jail Hillary or Obama up.

As for TPP, as I said, it is two sided. I'm not sure if it would have been such a bad deal for the USA, maybe some renegotiation would have been neccesary. But now, the US leaves those countries to China, who is more than happy to widen their sphere of influence.

Steven Bannon is right to fear a future where China dictates the rules, like the USA did for the the last 20-30 years, but cancelling TPP just gave a boost to China.

Steve smith ➔ aj1575 • 6 months ago

Never? You did say never didn't you? If there is one thing I have learned in me and that is never to say never.

To save the country and his presidency.....President Trump will do what is needed.....and that includes putting those two in prison.

Isn't it interesting how Sessions faked being above reproach by recusing himself from the Russia / Trump conspiracy theory.

But when Trumped publicly expressed his displeasure with and humiliated Sessions, Sessions said he would continue working for the president rather than recuse himself. Why? Because Sessions knows if Trump fired him the backlash may be severely damaging and perhaps even unrecoverable for Trump.

Sessions has to be a mouse and a turncoat and bought and paid for deep state operative. He has to be.

Sessions recused himself when he shouldn't have because it benefited the deep state (and hurt Trump) and he didn't recuse himself when he should have because once again it benefited the deep state (and hurt Trump).

It doesn't get any plainer than that. Fire his wrinkly ass and prosecute him.

Control freaks have to control everything including every protest that might turn the tide against their agenda. Unite the Right is an empowerment message (even the Left has used it). They can't have an empowered opposition. They are here to destroy and delegitimize. So they hijacked it, refused to call it by its name in the media, and instead called them all nazis which is a psychological trigger word to instantly make you repulsed (simple Pavlov's dog conditioning) and destroy all credibility that "Unite the Right" innately has. controlled the rally at the top with their own people, and at that point they can get away with anything. They profit immensely from this. Unless we become as control freak as they are, they will continue to do this until Trump is out of office and they have political control once more.

even the New York Times suspected Hagel of rigging voting machines to help Bush, back before Hagel befriended Obama. Then Hagel switched sides. We actually had 4 rigged elections, courtesy of Hagel, 2 Bush & 2 Obama elections. They thought they rigged Hillary's election too, but to their surprise learned they hadn't rigged it quite enough. After they stole 3 million plus votes, it never occurred to them, Hillary could still lose. Hagel rigged his own original election to the Senate, then began rigging other elections.

The minute I found out Kessler "organized" the Unite the Right, it was fishy. Here we have Kessler, an occupy wall street and Obama supporter, organizing something so 180 to that mind set? Then we have a democratic mayor and democratic governor, McAuliffe, ordering a stand down of the police? McCauliffe was head of the DNC and is corrupt as the day is long:

Yep I truly believe Charlottesville was staged.

Some of it was real some of it was fake, which is why you can't prove it.

I've questioned a couple AltRight "leaders" about it on twitter via DM and they block me.

That's every bit as disingenuous as the support the Clintons got from from the Entertainment Industry,

When Bubba & the Sea Hag went to the White House they sent two of their Arkansas "friends" to set up a blackmail operation in the guise of a Hollywood Production Company, just like they did when they got their hands on the "dirty dossiers" about the freaks on Capitol Hill.

Bubba's been blackmailing people since the day he caught his bother Roger, whacking off.

In six and a half decades, I never seen or met a genuine Nazi or a Klansmen. Of course, I've had a lifetime of Hollywood indoctrination trying to convince me that all poor Christian whites are idiots who have sex with their sisters.

Antifa and BLM are the end result of decades of propaganda puked up by Christian hating Hollywood writers, and the idiot teachers who've been trained in the Bill Ayers model of anarchy.

Its becoming more evident by the day that whole thing was staged. The most disturbing part though is how the objective was achieved by the Soros/Deep State Clan. All Conservatives are now branded racists, Antifa is stronger now in the court of public opinion, the MSM was able to brand President Trump a racist, our historic statues across this Nation are falling like Domino's, the average Joe along with the masses bought into this crap, and the Deep State now has their finger on that button...Anytime they want to push it from here out, they will have maximum impact....and they know it..

Let's see, Trump got an award from Jesse Jackson for hiring minorities. Trump spent the majority of his life as a liberal Democrat, and, frankly, I don't think he changed anymore than the guy who organized the UnitetheRight rally in Charlottesville who was also a liberal Democrat until--I guess--he was knocked off his horse by lightning on his way to Damascus on election night 2016.

Come on, you know Trump isn't a racist or a white supremacist. Russia just didn't work. Why don't you wait until he trips over a conflict of interest with his businesses, or someone finds one of those old DECLINED PROSECUTION investigations of him that MUST exist somewhere in the bowels of the FBI's white collar section, the statute of limitations hasn't run out, and they make something of it. That would be at least Constitutional. Let's not go as far as martial law, please, and we don't need your spy agency and Establishment generals pulling any 1963 style coups.

The 65th Bilderberg Meeting, held earlier this month, from 1-4 June at Marriott Hotel in Chantilly, Virginia, was noteworthy on a number of counts, starting with the presence of four members of the Trump Administration at a gathering where it was widely assumed that both the policy direction and legitimacy of Trump's presidency would have been hotly contested. This represented a deviation from the poor attendance by senior US officials at Bilderberg during Obama's second term – during the previous four Bilderberg meetings the Obama Administration sent just one official in 2015. For a number of alternative news outlets, particularly Alex Jones' Infowars, the presence of the four Trump Administration officials presented a unique ideological challenge given their previous incantations against Bilderberg as a hot-bed of intrigue by the elitist supporters of globalism, and their strong support of Trump, whom they had exalted as the globalist giant-slayer. The Infowars solution to this dilemma was to hold a poorly attended pro-Trump rally outside the Marriott.

While the overall turnout from the anti-Bilderberg protestors at Chantilly was, as Intellihub noted "substantially lower than in 2012 when the Bilderbergers last met at the very same hotel", the alternative media and key activists were still well represented. In addition to the Infowars crew of David Knight and Owen Shroyer (incredibly, despite the convenience of the US location, Alex

BOMBSHELL: New evidence suggests Charlottesville was a complete SET-UP

By Derrick Wilburn - August 19, 2017

At least one law enforcement officer in Charlottesville, VA has come forward to clear his conscience and reveal the truth — or at least his version of it — that what went down in the city was not only condoned by city governance but was intentional, orchestrated and may have been planned as long ago as May.

The as-yet unidentified police officer has said that the Charlottesville P.D. were specifically instructed to bring the radical left and right wing groups together to instigate violence and then to told to “stand down” once violence ensued in a deliberate effort to ignite a race riot. Hear his words:

The story is being told on YourNewsWire.com and other sources:

"A Charlottesville police officer has come forward to express his anger at being told to "stand down" by the city mayor during violent clashes between protestors. He also claims the protests, which pitched "white supremacists" against members of Antifa, were "set up" to further the agenda of the elites.

"We [Charlottesville police] were ordered to bring the rival groups together. As soon as they were in contact with each other, we were told to stand down. It was outrageous. We weren't allowed to arrest anyone without asking the mayor first. We weren't even allowed to stop the driver as he sped away."

"The event was being set up as far back as at least May and it went like clockwork."

Michael Signer, the mayor of Charlottesville, ordered police to stand down during the most chaotic and destructive period of the protests – despite police protests against the orders.

"We wanted to do our job and keep the peace. But these mothers in charge really want to destroy America."

This revelation is huge and if true may implicate Mayor Signer and possibly other city officials in the death of a citizen.

"Fox News reporter Doug McKelway was on the scene in Charlottesville and he backs up the police officer's claims.

"I can say, having been in Emancipation Park from early on that morning, that what I saw with my own two eyes confirms what this law enforcement source told us. At least from all visible appearances. We saw people coming out of that park who had head wounds, who were bleeding from the head, people walking into that park with bats, with sticks — you saw what they were wearing — helmets, body armor, they had come — and this pertains to both sides — they had come to do damage.. you cannot help but notice from that video that police had been more pro-active, they could have potentially calmed this thing down to some degree."

Here's McKelway's initial report upon landing on the ground in Charlottesville. Remember this is long before these new revelations when neither he nor anyone had the slightest idea some dirty tricks may be afoot. To cut directly to the chase fast forward to the 2:40 mark of this 3:51 long video and listen to what the reporter says:

"As wounded were being brought out of the park police were sitting idly by." Now why would the cops, sworn servants of the populace be just standing around while citizens are bleeding right in front of them? Could it be because they were given specific orders to render no assistance in an effort to let tensions fester?

Breaking911 tweeted video of James Fields, Jr., driver of the car in the deadly attack, as he fled the scene. People are now noticing how at no point was the car that plowed into the crowd of protesters pursued by police – there is not a police car in sight leading into the area or in pursuit as he drives away! How does that happen?

In the 38-second video below cops are plainly visible as Fields drives his battered Chrysler away from the carnage. Officers can clearly be seen looking directly at the suspect and his torn up car yet they casually observe the man who'd just mowed down dozens of people. They allow him to motor on by as if on a Sunday drive. They make NO effort to stop the car which is a mere yard or two away with its torn up windshield and front end traveling at a very low rate of speed leaving a trail of smoke:

Does this seem like a normal reaction by law enforcement in such a situation? The depth of this conspiracy runs deeper:

“[Mayor] Michael Signer is a Virginia Democratic activist with close ties to Barack Obama and John Podesta. Before landing the Charlottesville mayor job he previously worked closely with Podesta at the Center of American Progress and worked with him again on Barack Obama’s State Department Transition Team.

...The man accused of being a neo-Nazi and murdering a woman by deliberately driving into her during protests in Charlottesville is in reality a supporter of Hillary Clinton and member of Antifa in receipt of funding by George Soros.

White supremacist and ‘Unite the Right’ leader, Jason Kessler, has been exposed as a supporter of former President Obama and a hardline member of far-left Occupy movement.

When did he change his political leaning? According to the Southern Poverty Law Center (an organization that is certainly no friend to Conservatives), Kessler revealed his political transformation around November 2016, the same month Donald Trump won the presidential election.

"If you think that is suspicious, wait until you learn about the other actors in this enormous set-up event.

Brennan Gilmore was the first man "on the scene" and was the author of the first viral tweet about Charlottesville. He was later interviewed by MSNBC. He was presented as an accidental witness. But who is he really?

Gilmore worked in Africa as a State Department foreign officer under Hillary Clinton. The New York Times mentioned this "coincidence" – and then later deleted it. Brennan Gilmore was also involved with the Kony hoax in 2012, and he is currently Chief of Staff for Tom Perriello, who is running for Governor of Virginia and received \$380k from George Soros.

So the first man on the scene, whose tweet went viral, and who was later interviewed on mainstream news as a witness, just happened to be a State Department insider with a long history of involvement in psy-ops? If you think this isn't fishy, how about this – since the Charlottesville protests and his appearance in the media, his information was suddenly removed from State Department websites."

We need to clarify that these are early accounts and as yet unverified, but if true this is very, very serious stuff. It points directly to the reality of the "deep state" and more importantly to the lengths that the Soros/Clinton/Obama one-world government cabal will go in order to realize their desires for 'fundamental transformation.'

Folks this is much, much more serious than white supremacists versus Antifa fighting in the streets.
