Please leave me off of group texts. As stated in email, I cannot get dragged into a conflict of interest, so I do not read them. Gotta do what is best for the lawsuit!

Ok, now I do need to get involved. I don't know the full extent of it, but I understand there is talk about adding something about "machine

Foundation is mentioned in the Bible multiple times. Every real success has a stable Foundation and per your statements Paul about your Christian Faith, I am sure you understand about the importance of having a stable Foundation. Jesus Christ is The Cornerstone of Our... >

Looking forward to a call to clear these issues up. To be clear, I would never "abandon" a client. Never have. Never will. I told Josh last week I'll fight for him as long as it takes and the same goes for Bianca whom I very much look forward to meeting. I LOVED Bianca's statements in the DJHJ article! I did a happy dance when I read that article. I'm confident we can all work together in harmony on this.

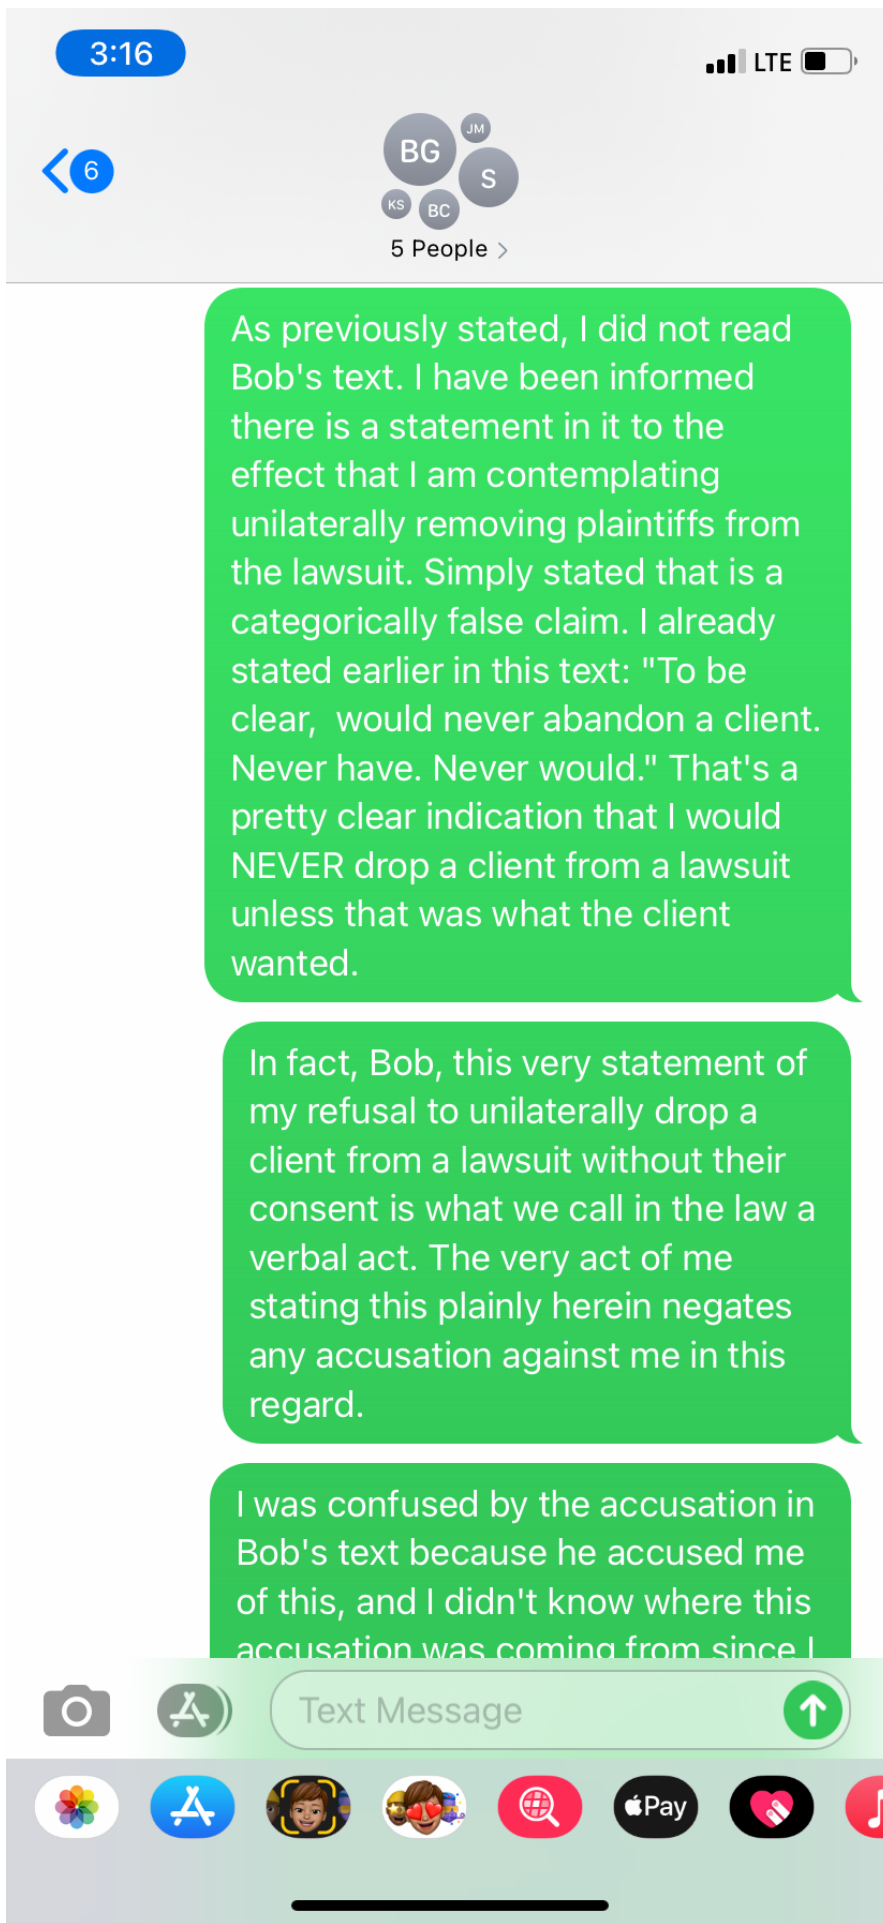

More importantly, I have utmost of confidence that God is at work in this lawsuit and will use it to

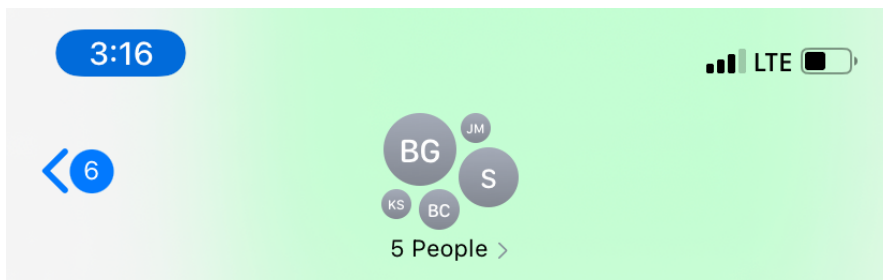

- A separate issue is Paul you cannot arbitrarily abandon anyone you represent including Bianca and Joshua because you have a Fiduciary Duty as their attorney and as their Sworn advocate to PUT BOTH OF THEIR INTERESTS ABOVE YOUR OWN.
- They, however, because of this direction you were considering and discussed with Steve who you absolutely cannot discuss anything concerning your clients, could fire you, file grievances which would be one grievance too many and hire a new attorney and make things untenable for you to continue to represent separate clients as there could be a major conflict by first diluting their rights to zealous representation or even foregoing their claims while seeking new clients that would better support your own goals when your duty primarily is to your first clients and plus there is violation of attorney client privilege and confidentiality overall.

COMMENT, TWO PEOPLE HAVE CONFIRMED CONVERSATIONS THAT HAD TO BE SHARED WITH CLIENTS CONCERNING PAUL CONTEMPLATING REMOVING PLAINTIFFS ARBITRARILY. SECONDLY ACCORDING TO TEXAS BAR ATTORNEYS CANNOT ADD PLAINTIFFS WITHOUT THE PERMISSION OF CURRENT PLAINTIFFS THE WAY I READ THE REGULATION AND OF COURSE A CONFLICTS CHECK HAS TO BE DONE. There are several more matter I will quickly respond to via email received. EVERYONE GET ALONG AND SET AN EXAMPLE INSTEAD OF BEING CAUGHT IN THE SAME QUAGMIRE WE ARE ALL FIGHTING AGAINST AND THAT MEANS NOT ANY ONE PERSON TRYING TO ASCERTAIN CONTROL OVER ANYONE BUT INSTEAD HAVE A RATIONAL DECISION MAKING PROCESS BASED ON FACTUAL INPUT.

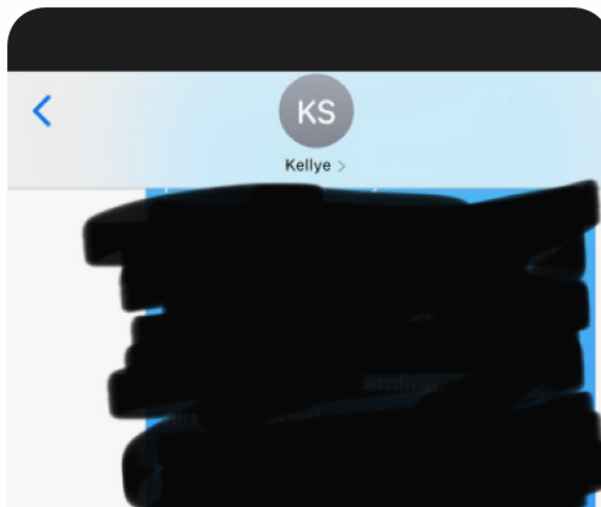

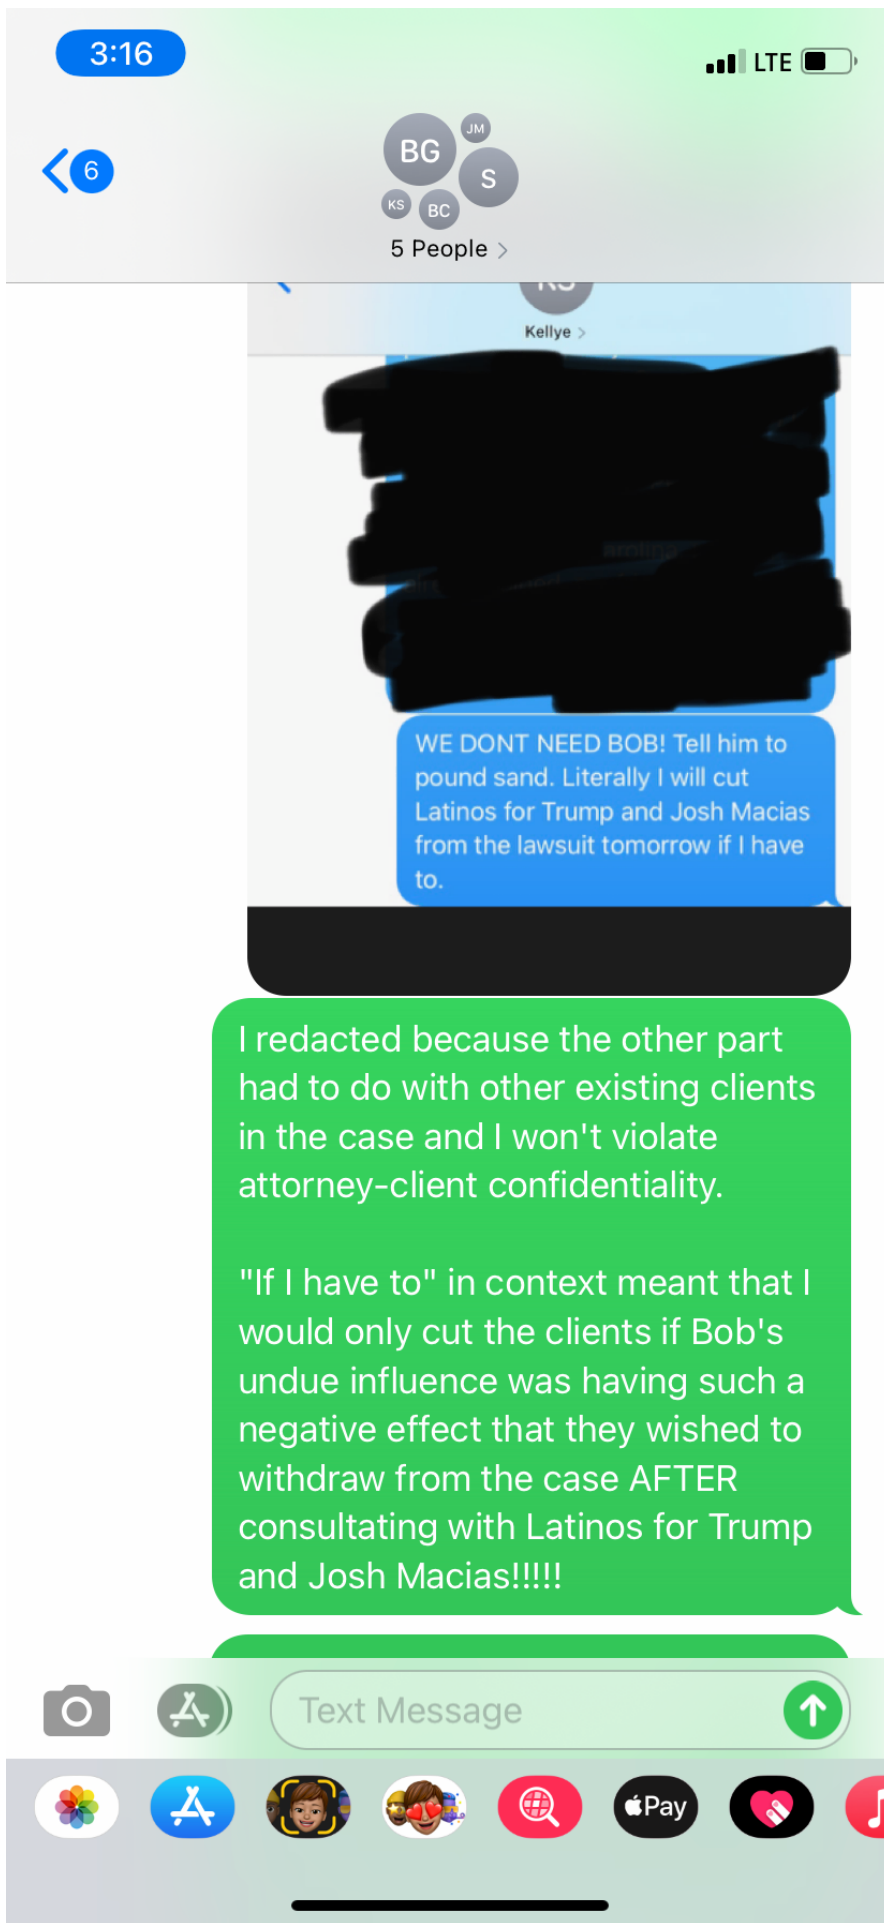

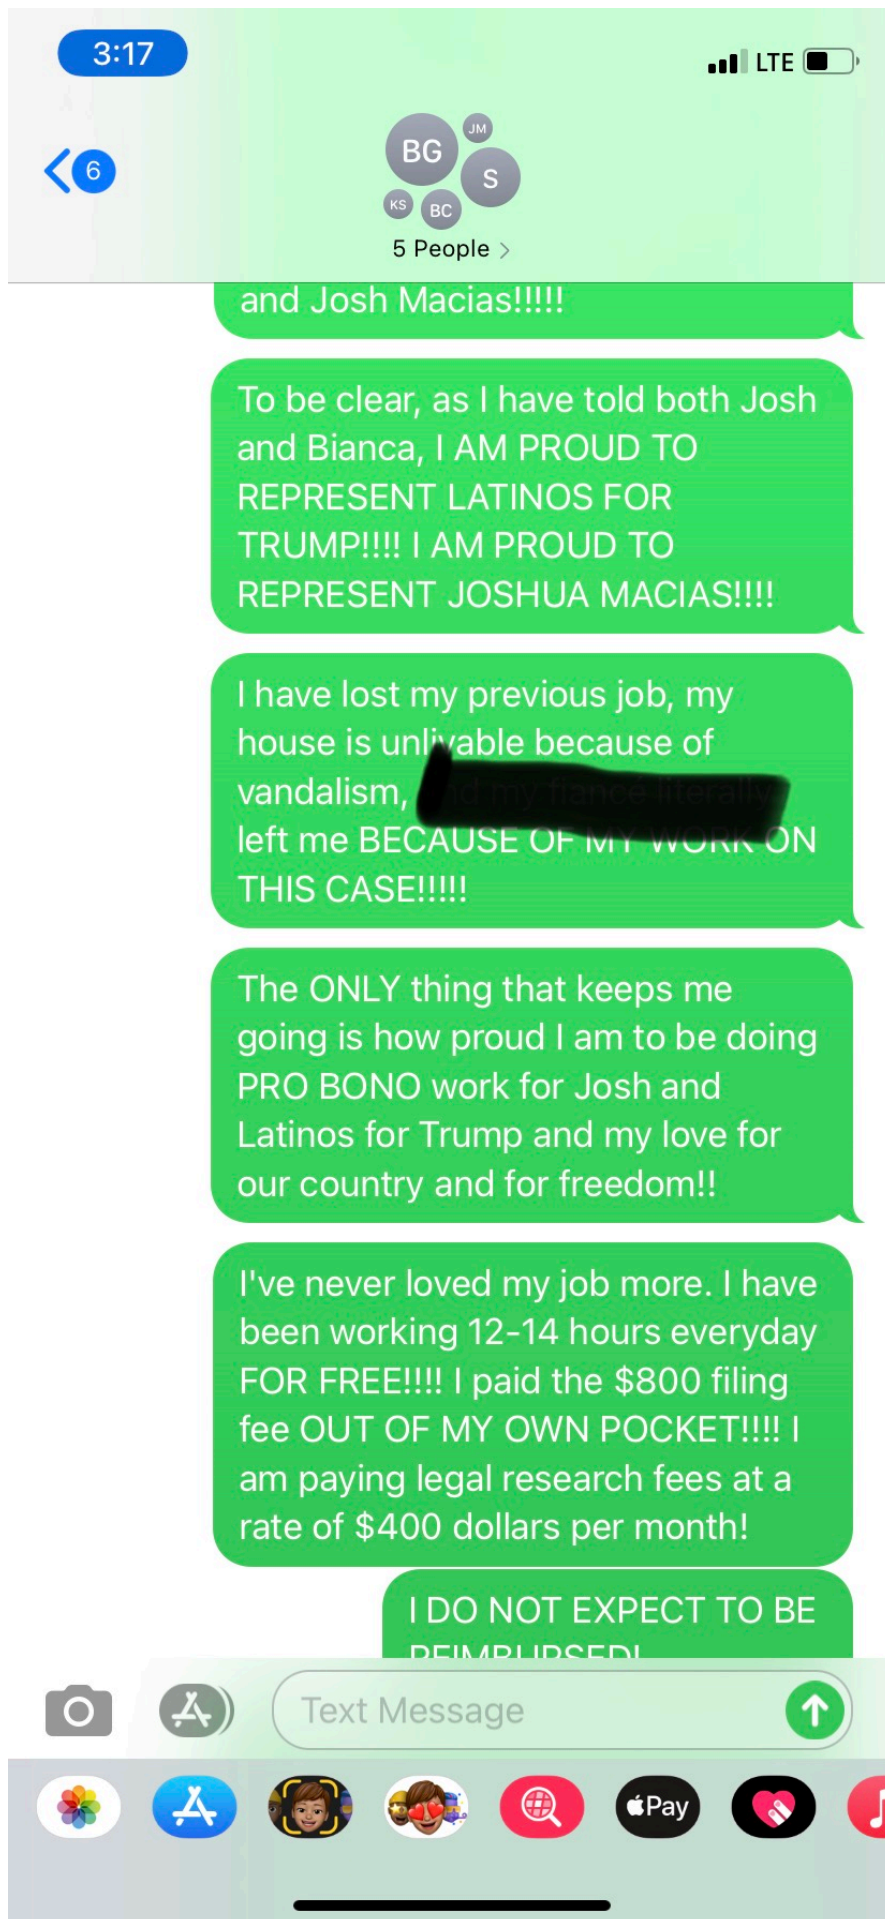

I was confused by the accusation in Bob's text because he accused me of this, and I didn't know where this accusation was coming from since I had no such intent.

Then I remembered reacting to something Kellye told me in a confidential conversation just between the two of that gave me concern that Bob was exerting improper influence over our clients to the detriment of the clients' legal interests. So I made the following comment in response . . .

*two of us

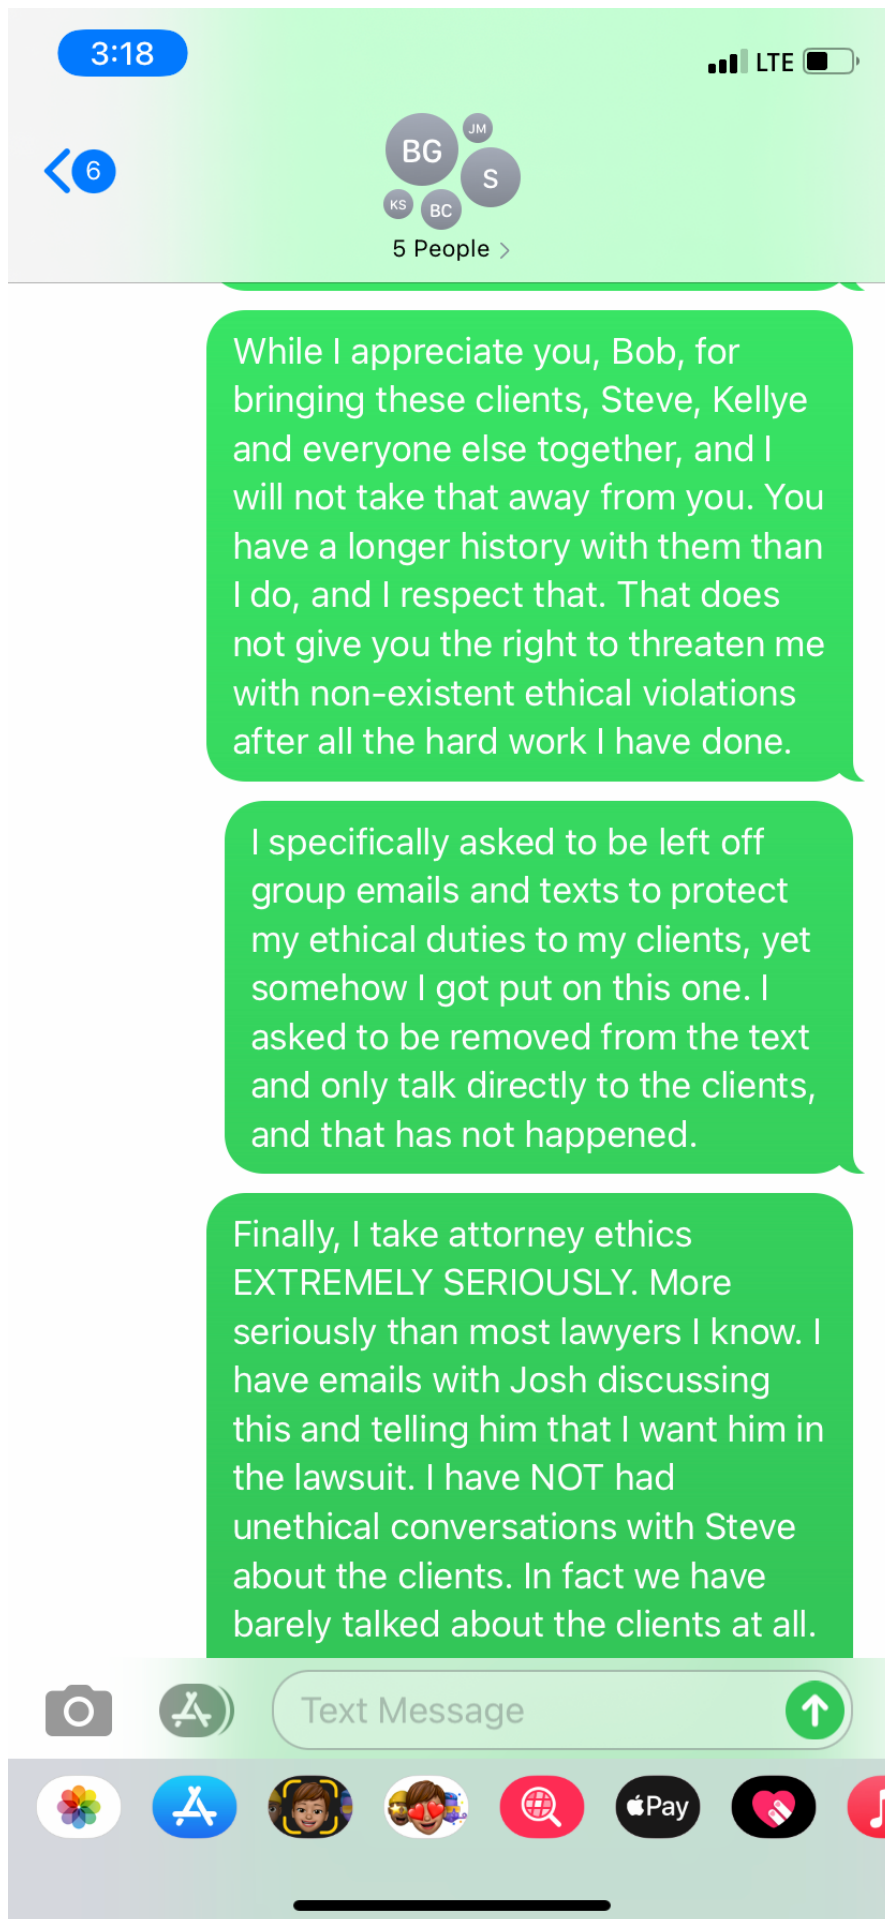

It takes a LOT to get me angry!!! I am a kind, loving person. But, I WILL NOT SIT HERE AND BE ACCUSED OF UNETHICAL CONDUCT TOWARD CLIENTS when I have been working night and day for six weeks, pulling literally FIVE all-nighters with less than two hours of sleep per night with ZERO compensation FOR MY CLIENTS!!!!

I will literally DIE for Latinos for Trump or Josh Macias! Indeed, I have nothing left to live for other than Jesus Christ, who is my everything, and God has shown me to work for THEM and for AMERICA, so that is what I'm doing.

While I appreciate you, Bob, for bringing these clients, Steve, Kellye and everyone else together, and I will not take that away from you. You have a longer history with them than I do, and I respect that. That does not give you the right to threaten me with non-existent ethical violations

I specifically asked to be left off group emails and texts to protect my ethical duties to my clients, yet somehow I got put on this one. I asked to be removed from the text and only talk directly to the clients, and that has not happened.

Finally, I take attorney ethics EXTREMELY SERIOUSLY. More seriously than most lawyers I know. I have emails with Josh discussing this and telling him that I want him in the lawsuit. I have NOT had unethical conversations with Steve about the clients. In fact we have barely talked about the clients at all. I have let Kellye handle client relations this far.

Bob, I don't know you and I will give you the benefit of the doubt that your intentions are good. I forgive you for accusing me of unethical conduct. But the fact is, you did it in front of the clients and that is a huge red flag for me. It gives the

Here are the questions that could be asked of you Paul and Steve in a court of Law.

- Have you Paul ever attempted to remove or discussed with anyone such as Steve, removing your Clients without justification

Intent itself is not an ethical violation Bob. And you don't even have that. I have 100% confidence I have not committed any unethical act. I gave you the benefit of the doubt. Now there is no doubt about your bad intentions toward this case. I'm blocking your number and getting back to work on the case.

Any clients that have a question or concern about the case strategy or my integrity are free to call me themselves.
